Constitutional Law II: Civil Rights & Civil Liberties

Department of Political Science, College of Sciences at the University of Central Florida

Welcome to POS 4604

This online class is organized into a series of weekly modules. You should complete one module per week. To help you work efficiently, the course follows a clear weekly routine.

Please read the syllabus carefully as it answers questions students frequently ask about the late work policy, grading scale, travel for UCF competitions, and more. The syllabus and introductory information about the course answer questions that students frequently ask during the course.

Course Description

American Constitutional Law II: Civil Rights and Civil Liberties examines the protections afforded individuals by the Bill of Rights of the U.S. Constitution. This is an online only course. The course material is organized into numbered modules to be completed sequentially. Students can complete some assignments at their own pace, but should participate in regular small group discussion at roughly the same time as other students in the class. University Course Catalog Description: Development of civil liberties and civil rights in the American federal system.

Please read this syllabus carefully. When you've finished reading this syllabus, you can start with the "Start Here" module (there's a link to it at the bottom of the syllabus) The Start Here module includes a Syllabus Quiz and you must score 5/5 on it to unlock numbered modules.

Course Prerequisites

ENC 1102 (Freshman Composition II), POS 2041 (American National Government), or consent of the instructor. I encourage you to take POS 4284 (Judicial Process and Politics) prior to taking this class.

Course Objectives

The objective of this course is to introduce you to the important role that the United States Constitution has in orienting American politics and governance. With this end in mind, we will explore the Constitution, its various interpretations, and the role of the judiciary in constitutional application, examples of the influence it has had on the function of government, and the case law that has emanated from its interpretation. The objectives of this class include the following:

- Understand key constitution terms and concepts
- Understand historically significant Supreme Court decisions
- Analyze historical trends in Supreme Court composition and decision making
- Evaluate and apply constitutional precedents
- Apply legal reasoning to complex hypothetical problems
- Engage in discussion and deliberation of constitutional issues
- Improve writing and critical thinking skills
- Build collaboration skills and practice professional work habits

Required Texts and Materials

Lee Epstein, Kevin McGuire and Thomas G. Walker. Constitutional Law for a Changing America: Rights, Liberties, and Justice, Eleventh Edition. (Thousand Oaks, CA: CQ Press, an Imprint of Sage Publications, Inc. 2019). ISBN-13: 978-1544391250, ISBN-10: 1544391250. Make sure you buy the right textbook (see image below) not similarly titled textbooks for other classes by the same authors. See on Amazon (https://www.amazon.com/Constitutional-Law-Changing-America-Liberties-ebook/dp/B09BVXYSSG/ref=sr_1_2?dchild=1&qid=1632240282&refinements=p_27%3AKevin+T.+McGuire&s=digital-text&sr=1-2&text=Kevin+T.+McGuire) .

Additional readings will be announced and/or distributed in class. In particular, these readings will focus on rulings from the most recent Supreme Court term(s) and emerging issues in constitutional law.

BOOK BUYING ISSUES? Don't wait until the second or third week of class to get the books required for this class. If the timing of financial aid is an issue, take advantage of UCF's Textbook Purchase Programs (https://finaid.ucf.edu/receiving/funds-for-books/) .

Course Requirements

Your final grade is based on the components listed below. Assignment point values based on 1,400 total points in course.

1. Module Quizzes (45%) – Each of the numbered modules contains a quiz. Each module quiz is worth 45 points. Your lowest module quiz score will be dropped.
2. Final Exam (20%) – The Final Examination is cumulative and will require students to apply their understanding of the subject matter in a comprehensive manner. Students can expect a mix of multiple choice and true-false questions on the Final Exam.
3. Module Review Exercises (15%) – Each numbered module contains one review exercises, such as crossword puzzles, matching games, etc. Each review exercise is worth 15 points. Your lowest module review exercise score will be dropped.
4. Small Group Discussions (20%) – Each numbered module includes a small group discussion of a constitutional problem or issue.

Course Policies

Workload Expectations

This is a three credit hour class. The workload expectation per credit hour is set forth in the UCF Catalog, Registration Policies, Terms and Credit Hours (http://catalog.ucf.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=170#registration-policies) , which states the amount of work represented by one credit hour is not less than "One hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out of class student work each week [or equivalent work in internship, directed readings, etc.] for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time." In an online class, you make up for hours of class time on your own. This means you are expected to work at least 9 hours per week on this class in a regular Fall or Spring Semester or 18 hours per week on this class in an abbreviated Summer Term. If you have a trip planned, I strongly encourage you to work ahead so this class won't interfere with your plans.

Missed Assignments/Make-Ups/Extra Credit

Make-ups for in-class writing, quizzes, the midterm, or the final exam will only be allowed for official University activities or personal emergencies. Written documentation is required. Make-up assessments may be different. See UCF Policy 4.401. (http://policies.ucf.edu/) and UCF Regulation 5.020 (https://regulations.ucf.edu/chapter5.asp) .

Late Work

Completing all your work by the specified dues dates is important to your success in this class. Late work will be penalized. You will lose 10% of the possible total points on an assignment per day late. For example, if you receive a score of 9 out of 10 on a quiz two days after it was due (i.e. you took a quiz due Sunday on Tuesday instead), your score will be reduced by 2 points (20% of 10 points), so you will receive a 7 out of 10 on that quiz. You will receive no credit for work complete ten or more days after its due date.

Lateness deductions may be waived if student submits assignments late to due unforeseeable, adverse circumstances, including medical and personal emergencies. If you example, you cannot complete an assignment due Sunday night because you were in a serious car accident and hospitalized, you can complete the assignment later and won't be penalized for doing so. COVID illness would be another example of an unforeseeable, adverse circumstance. Documentation may be required, but is not always necessary.

Grading Scale

Name:	Range:
A	100 %	to 92.5%
A-	< 92.5 %	to 89.5%
B+	< 89.5 %	to 86.5%
B	< 86.5 %	to 82.5%
B-	< 82.5 %	to 79.5%
C+	< 79.5 %	to 76.5%
C	< 76.5 %	to 72.5%
C-	< 72.5 %	to 69.5%
D+	< 69.5 %	to 66.5%
D	< 66.5 %	to 62.5%
D-	< 62.5 %	to 59.5%
F	< 59.5 %	to 0.0%

Any missing assignments are treated as 0 scores for the purposes of calculating final course grades.

Grades of "Incomplete"

Incomplete grades are given only in situations where unexpected emergencies prevent a student from completing the course and the remaining work can be completed the next semester. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete.

Group Work

There are no group projects in this class. You are welcome to discuss course material with other students, but you are responsible for your own work.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism and cheating of any kind on an examination, quiz, or assignment will result at least in an "F" for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an "F" for the entire course) and may be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct for further action. See the UCF Golden Rule (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/) for further information. I will assume for this course that you will adhere to the academic creed of this University and will maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. In other words, don't cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. I will also adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that will not apply to everyone.

Professionalism Policy

Follow university policy and basic rules of etiquette. You must behave appropriately in all your class interactions.

University Writing Center

The University Writing Center (UWC) is a free resource for UCF undergraduates and graduates. At the UWC, a trained writing consultant will work individually with you on anything you're writing (in or out of class), at any point in the writing process from brainstorming to editing. Appointments are recommended, but not required. For more information or to make an appointment, visit the UWC website (http://uwc.cah.ucf.edu/), stop by MOD 608, or call 407.823.2197.

You do not need to come to the UCF campus to receive help from a trained writing tutor. As a UCF student, you have access to writing tutors at the UCF Online Writing Center. You can schedule an online consultation (http://uwc.cah.ucf.edu/schedule-a-consultation/) with a writing tutor. You can get the help you need to complete the Final Report of your Civic Engagement Project online at a time convenient to you! This service is free to you.

Disability Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. No accommodations will be provided until the student has met with the professor to request accommodations. Students who need accommodations must be registered with Student Accessibility Services (https://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/), Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

Emergency Procedures and Campus Safety

Students are encouraged to be aware of their surroundings and familiar with actions to take in various types of emergencies. Though most emergency situations are primarily relevant to courses that meet in person, such incidents can also impact online students, either when they are on or near campus to participate in other courses or activities or when their course work is affected by off-campus emergencies. The following policies apply to courses in online modalities.

- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to <https://my.ucf.edu (https://my.ucf.edu)> and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Accommodations for Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact the instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Religious Observances

Students are expected to notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class to observe a holy day of their religious faith (not already reflected in the normal class schedule). For more information, see the UCF Policy (http://regulations.ucf.edu/chapter5/documents/5.020ReligiousObservancesFINALJan19.pdf) and/or contact the Office of Diversity Initiatives (https://diversity.ucf.edu/) at 407-823-6479.

Title IX

Title IX prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct, sexual violence, sexual harassment, and retaliation. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find resources available to support the victim, including confidential resources and information concerning reporting options at https://letsbeclear.ucf.edu (https://letsbeclear.ucf.edu) and http://cares.sdes.ucf.edu/ (http://cares.sdes.ucf.edu/) .

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Financial Aid Requirement

As of Fall, 2014, all faculty are required to document students' academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the Evidence of Academic Engagement Quiz by the end of the first week of classes or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
