

Software Engineer

Job Description:

MESH Solutions Division, a DSCI Company, is seeking qualified applicants for a full-time position as a Software Engineer. The successful candidate must have related experience in order to fulfill technological and research duties. The candidate must possess a working of software development and the development cycle. Candidates must be familiar with standard software development practices and the use of source control. The candidate must be highly organized with the ability to multi-task, meet rigorous deadlines and work in a small development team. Candidates must have well-developed communication, critical thinking and reading skills.

Technical Requirements:

- Strong knowledge of C++, C#, .NET Framework
- Familiar with designing UI interfaces and tools development
- Designing, developing, debugging object-oriented software in a windows environment
- Write clean, efficient code and documentation of code

Additional Requirements:

- Experience with source code repository (SVN preferred)
- Ability to work in small development team and collaborate
- Excellent verbal, writing and organization skills
- Experience with VBS2 or ARMA2 game systems is a plus

U.S. Citizenship Required: Yes

Years of Experience Required: 0 – 2

Security Level Required: Yes

Level of Education Required: Bachelor's Degree

Location(s):

Orlando, FL 32826 (USA)