University Course Catalog Description

This course provides an introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS) methods from an anthropological perspective. This course is part of a two course sequence with Advanced GIS Methods in Anthropology and fulfills the two-course core requirement for the GIS Graduate Certificate or the GIS Undergraduate Certificate.

Course Overview

This course will expose you to both numerous spatial theories underlying GIS analysis as well as to the geospatial methodologies, tools, and theories used to collect and analyze spatial data. It is relevant to anyone who may need to conduct anthropological research or research in other disciplines that includes consideration of data within a spatial context. This course is comprised of both a classroom and a laboratory component. The classroom component will consist of lectures and activities, while the laboratory component will allow you to get hands-on experience applying the concepts discussed in class. This course is part of a two course sequence with Advanced GIS Methods in Anthropology and fulfills the two-course core requirement for the GIS Graduate Certificate or the GIS Undergraduate Certificate.

Course Objectives

In this course, students will gain skills in:

- Project design: including generating and analyzing geospatial data
- Writing: including designing research and writing grants related to geospatial analysis
- Public speaking through the presentation of their research designs and their data analyses
- Interdisciplinarity: including evaluating and correlating data derived from a variety of sources, as well as assessing research in several disciplines.
Course Prerequisites
None

Required Text and Articles
Some readings in this course take the form of journal articles, which are available through the UCF Library web site. In cases where a reading is not available for electronic download, a copy of the reading will be made available through the course website on Webcourses@UCF. The following texts are also required for the course:

Basis for Final Grade
Your grade will be based upon your laboratory exercises (40%), participation in classroom activities with a greater role expected from graduate students (4%), the syllabus quiz (1%), a written grant application based on the provided undergraduate or graduate grant sheet (45%), a short presentation of that application to the entire class (10%). Laboratory exercises will usually be due via webcourses at the start of class the week after they were handed out, see the course schedule below for actual dates. Failure to hand it in assignments on the due date, in the absence of a pre-accepted excuse, will result in a score of (0) for that assignment. Alternative assignment due dates will be provided when an excuse has been granted by the professor. Presentation times during the final weeks of class will be scheduled later in the class. Failure to present at that time, in the absence of a pre-accepted excuse, will result in a score of (0) for the presentation. Students with a pre-accepted excuse by the professor, including a religious observance or if you are representing the university in an authorized event or activity, will be provided with and alternative time for their presentations.

The syllabus quiz also completes the verification requirement for students who receive federal financial aid. Verification of student engagement is required to support UCF’s compliance with federal financial aid regulations. The regulations state that without verification of student engagement at the start of each course in which a student is enrolled, students will not receive their student aid. UCF is required to verify that every student enrolled in every course meets this regulation. All students, whether or not you receive federal student aid, are required to complete the syllabus quiz by 3pm on the Friday of first week.

Course Policies

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct
All student conduct must conform to the purpose of this class, which is to provide a welcoming and inclusive environment for the learning and sharing knowledge. This will require civility and respect for each other during lectures and discussions, as well as trust and cooperation between you and me. Cheating, plagiarism, and disruptive behavior will, therefore, not be tolerated in class. If your behavior in class is being disruptive (e.g. talking, violating the electronic device policy, arriving late, distracting other students), I may use my right as instructor to ask you to leave the class. If a student habitually disturbs the class I also reserve the right to reduce their final course grade by up to 10%. Plagiarism and cheating are particularly serious offenses. Penalties for plagiarism or cheating can include a failing grade on an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student's official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade. All students are required to follow the Rules of Conduct (https://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc), and in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf). Violations of these rules may result in a record of the infraction being placed in your file. Confirmation of such incidents may result in expulsion from the University.

Course Accessibility
Both I and the University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (SAS)
<http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/> (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone 407-823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

University Writing Center: The University Writing Center (https://guides.ucf.edu/writingcenter) is a free resource for UCF students. If you require assistance with any part of the writing process, they have trained consultants who can help you if you plan ahead. Since written assignments comprise a large percentage of your grade for this course, I would encourage you to seek out their assistance if you require it.

Electronic Device Policy

Students learn in different ways and are comfortable with different technologies. You are welcome to use a computer, tablet, smartphone or similar device in class meetings for note taking or for completing the laboratory exercises. You may not, however, use these devices for non-course-related purposes including: phone calls, texting, checking emails, and making use of the internet. If you wish to use them to record a lecture you need to ask about this in advance. You may also not use the device in any way that is distracting to other students in the classroom. If you are found to be doing so, you will be asked to put away the device or stop using the device. The use of a device to send or receive a call or message is not permitted in class at any point unless there is an emergency. Please be sure these devices are silenced, in accordance with University policy, and in your pocket or bag for the duration of the class.

Campus Safety

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Please be aware of your surroundings and familiar with basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide's physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html.
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video (https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk).

For more information see: http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
Accommodations for Active Duty Military Students
Students who are deployed active duty military and/or National Guard personnel and require accommodation should contact me as soon as possible after the semester begins and/or after they receive notification of deployment to make related arrangements.

Attendance (including absences for Religious Observances and Authorized University Events or Co-curricular Activities)
Attendance at class meetings is important for an understanding of course materials and for success in this class. I will not take formal class attendance, although I may keep a record of attendance of individual students at my discretion if it is warranted based on class performance. I expect that students attend class regularly and I will not provide class notes or lecture slides to students for class periods that students miss. In addition, if you are not in attendance on days when you may be presenting, without a pre-accepted excuse, you will receive a score of (0) for that assignment. Students with a pre-accepted excuse, including a religious observance or if you are representing the university in an authorized event or activity, will be provided with and alternative time for their presentations.

Updates and Notifications
The course website on Webcourses will be used for any general notifications or updates to this course, including changes to this syllabus.

Obtaining Notes for Missed Lectures
If you miss a lecture it is your responsibility to obtain notes from a fellow classmate. I will not provide notes or a copy of any lecture or activity.

Grades of “Incomplete”
Incomplete grades are only given when an unexpected and documented emergency situation prevented a student from completing the remaining work at the time when the emergency occurred. I have the right to make the final decision on whether or not to issue an incomplete, rather than submitting a final grade based upon your completed work. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the next semester or the “I” will automatically become an “F” on your transcript.

Course Schedule
This syllabus is tentative and I may make reasonable schedule modifications to meet the goals of the class. Articles are available through the UCF Library.

University Catalog Description

Ethical issues and concepts practitioners of integrative anthropological sciences confront across various academic, research, and public domains. Prerequisites: Admission to the Ph.D. in Integrative Anthropological Sciences or M.A. in Anthropology programs or C.I.

Course Overview

This course examines a range of ethical issues and concepts anthropological practitioners increasingly confront across various academic, research, and public domains. Growing recognition among institutions, professional organizations, and individuals for the need to ethically treat the communities, populations, material remains, and cultural heritages of those anthropologists traditionally study has assumed newfound urgency over recent years. The challenges faced by cultural anthropologists, archaeologists, and bio-/physical anthropologists on such issues are explored through anthropological case studies as well as other relevant research approaches. Findings from this body of work has important implications for how future anthropological research is conducted and how the discipline is perceived in many mainstream contexts.

What textbooks will I need?
There are no required textbooks for this course. Weekly readings will be a combination of journal articles, book chapters, and other professional and popular writings.

What are the course requirements?

This course begins on August 26, 2019 and ends on December 11, 2019. Over this period, you will be expected to:

- Review online module materials and assigned readings
- Complete an online, course initiation activity
- Participate in all class discussions, class presentations, and course activities
- Write two annotations of peer-reviewed publications each week, which will be compiled into a course bibliography
- Write ten reflection papers based on the weekly readings
- Write a problem-based research paper (including a prospectus, first draft, critique, and final draft), which will be presented in a final professional seminar

Modules will open on an assigned schedule and all assignments are due on specific dates throughout the course (see schedule below). All graded work will be submitted online.

Please note the due dates carefully. It is your responsibility to be aware of all due dates for this course.

How will I be evaluated and graded?

You can access your scores for your graded work through the 'Grades' link in the main course menu. It is your responsibility to check on your grades throughout the course. Please allow for a reasonable amount of time to pass for the grading process to occur. All student grades for each assignment will be released (unmuted) to the roster at the same time. If you see a problem with your score after the grade column has been released, please notify me during office hours or by using the Canvas Inbox and I will rectify the problem as soon as possible. Questions regarding any scores must be addressed within two weeks of the grade being released.

NB: As per UCF rules, any grade below a B- in a graduate course does count toward your GPA but does not count toward the degree program.

Your final grade for the course is weighted and will be based on your performance on the following:

Incomplete grades are only given in situations where unexpected and documented medical emergencies prevent a student enrolled in the course in good standing from completing the remaining work. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the ‘I’ grade will automatically be recorded as an ‘F’ on your transcript.

What if I miss a class discussion or assignment?

Time management, problem solving, responsibility and personal accountability are among the most important things you can refine in a graduate program. You are expected to attend every class meeting and participate in class activities. However, we must all still carry on with life outside of coursework - some of you may have employment of family obligations that, upon unforeseen circumstances, may require you to miss a class. If this is the case, you must notify me ASAP by telephone, e-mail, in person, or by leaving a message with the department secretary (407-823-2227) prior to any scheduled class presentations. If you are participating in an official UCF event (e.g., sports or academic events) or professional development event (e.g., AAPA or SAA annual meetings), please provide the proper documentation prior to class. You are responsible for consulting the Academic Counseling Office and the department Graduate Coordinator in cases of illness, family emergency or other personal difficulties that constitute extended absence and missing coursework.

Only students who can provide a valid documented excuse to verify the reason for their absence will be allowed the opportunity to complete make-up work. Unexcused late assignments are not accepted after their due date. To be fair to everyone involved in the weekly peer reviewer process, only work submitted on time will be graded. It is your responsibility to check the course schedule for assignment due dates.

How is academic integrity maintained?

Plagiarism, cheating, or academic dishonesty of any kind on any other course work will not be tolerated and will result at least in an 'F' grade for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an 'F' grade or 'Z' grade for the entire course) and will be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct (http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/faq#students) for further action (e.g., possible expulsion). See the UCF Golden Rule (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/) for further information. All written work in this course is automatically submitted and reviewed for plagiarism during the grading process.

I will assume your enrollment in this course means that you will adhere to the academic creed of this University and you will maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. In other words, do not 'recycle' any work from previous university courses (without first conferring with your instructor), and above all, do not plagiarize any written work from academic and popular journals, academic and popular texts, or Internet sources. If you do this, the plagiarism check system will detect it and provide a report listing the sources that you used.

I will also adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately, to bend rules that would benefit your grade, or ask for a grade-related opportunity that will not equally be applied the entire class. I will not respond to requests to 'round up' final grades – you will be assigned the grade that you have earned.

Should I use UCF email or the Canvas Inbox?

In this course, our official mode of communication is through the secure Canvas Inbox system. It is your responsibility to check the Canvas Inbox and course announcements at least twice per week. You may also use your UCF Knight's Email account to communicate with the instructor. If you use the UCF Knights Mail system, please use the course number in your email reference so it is easily recognized, and please do not forget to add your name at the end of the email.

All communication between student and instructor and between student and student should be respectful and professional. Please be aware that any correspondence regarding assignments, grades, or class materials must utilize the Canvas or UCF Knight's Mail system.

When using the proper channels of communication, you can generally expect a response to your email within 24 hours. However, keep in mind that I may only check my email once, if at all, during the weekend hours. If you send an email on a Friday afternoon or over the weekend, you may not receive a response until the following Monday.

How do I receive disability accommodations?

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. Students who need accommodations must be registered with Student Disability Services (http://www.sds.ucf.edu), Student Resource Center Room 132, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

What are the course technology and software requirements?
You are expected to have reliable access to a computer and the Internet for this course. You are also expected to have Adobe Reader, Adobe Flash, and PowerPoint Viewer (or the equivalent) installed on the computer that you commonly access so that you may properly view multimedia materials linked to the weekly content of the course. Please visit the following web sites to access and install or upgrade versions of these products:

You must have access to a computer twice a week at the very least. If you do not own a computer, there are student accessible computers in all of UCF’s computer labs and in our department Graduate Students computer lab in HPH 309. For further information on UCF campus computer labs and a schedule of hours, please see the following website: http://guides.ucf.edu/content.php?pid=137016&sid=1173345

Canvas has an online tracking system where instructors can review a student’s progress while logged into the course. This assists students and professors in instances where computer ‘glitches’ or ‘Internet speed bumps’ occur when submitting assignments, taking exams, etc. Therefore, the ‘Bill Gates ate my homework’ excuse can be traced and verified. If you are having problems in submitting your work, please contact the instructor so I can point you in the right direction to receive assistance. The most common form of help is technical assistance provided by OnlineSupport@UCF. (http://learn.ucf.edu/support/)

What about copyright and third-party software?

This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

In addition, third parties (on sites such as Study Blue, Chegg, CourseHero, etc.) may be selling or requiring log-in access to class notes and other materials from this class without my authorization. Please be aware that this is a violation of copyright and such class materials have been known to contain extensive errors or outdated information, which could affect your performance or grade. Use these materials at your own risk.

During this course you might encounter public online services and/or software applications, sometimes called third-party software, such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be related to required course materials, you will not need to make any personally identifying information on any public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor or OnlineSupport@UCF.

Where can I find the course reading and assignment schedule?

Changes to the reading and assignment schedules may occur. Any changes will be announced through Canvas. Weekly topics and due dates for assignments can be found in the tables below. The schedule of assigned readings can be found using the 'Modules' link in the menu on the left.

University Catalog Description

An introductory survey of the four major subfields of Anthropology: Social Anthropology, Physical Anthropology, Linguistics, and Archaeology.

What is this course about?

General anthropology includes everything you'll need to get acquainted with the research methodologies and theoretical approaches used by anthropologists to investigate the past and present human experience in society and the natural world. We will study each of anthropology's subfields by exploring such topics as human evolution and genetic diversity, archaeological excavations and prehistoric societies, language use and identity, and social institutions of gender, power, kinship, spiritualism and economics. Your goal is to take a fresh look at the world around you, make sense of what may seem strange or irrational, and better understand the processes, meanings and motivations behind who we are and what we do as humans.

After successfully completing this course, you should be able to:

- Identify central theoretical concepts of biological anthropology, archaeology, linguistic anthropology, and cultural anthropology and describe how these theoretical concepts contributed to the development of the discipline.
- Describe the role anthropologists play in examining social, cultural and biological assumptions about humans and explain how the anthropological perspective differs from both ethnocentrism and American exceptionalism.
- Make use of the topical or thematic specializations that exist within contemporary anthropology as examples of the range of questions and concerns anthropologists address.
Demonstrate an understanding of scientific evidence for human evolution and biological diversity, archaeological interpretation of the past, relationship between language and culture, and positioning of social institutions and the self.

Examine media and literature concerning human diversity, cultural interactions, and our human past to effectively recognize statements of opinion versus statements of scientific fact.

What skills will I develop in this course?

While emphasis is placed on developing the knowledge and analytical skills necessary to evaluate scientific literature and mass media statements about topics in anthropology, you will also be developing the following intellectual and practical skills needed in your higher level university study and future employment opportunities:

After successfully completing this course, you should be able to:

- Demonstrate core skills of inquiry, analysis, and critical and creative thinking.
- Demonstrate initial skills in information literacy.
- Provide opinions and factual information through written and oral communication.
- Apply intercultural knowledge in various contexts.
- Participate in teamwork and problem solving activities in an effective manner.
- Understand the importance of civic engagement on a local and global scale.

How does this course relate to my Gen-Ed Experience?

General anthropology embodies the very essence of the UCF Integrative Gen-Ed experience. The Gen-Ed experience is designed to:

- Broaden and deepen your understanding of common human themes helping you to develop an awareness of diverse cultures, and understand the cultural, historical, economic, and social implications of what you learn
- Make you successful writers, speakers, and producers of digital materials in the academic, civic, and professional worlds
- Deepen your understanding of scientific methods while learning to connect and apply them to challenges facing our society today
- Transform you into well informed citizens who can reason and apply analytical, statistical, and computational methods to the challenges of a globally-diverse and technologically rich environment
- Train you to assess and decipher information in a world of conflicting sources

Through our holistic, comparative, and relativistic approach anthropologists apply method and theory from all five dimensions of the Gen-Ed Experience to study human behavior. This particular section will emphasize primary, secondary, and tertiary learning outcomes from the following dimensions:

- Interpretation and Evaluation: You will learn to assess and decipher information in a world full of conflicting sources and to employ social science models to produce knowledge.
- Cultural Interactions: You will broaden and deepen your understanding of common human themes; develop an awareness of diverse cultures, and understand the cultural, historical, economic, and social implications of what you learn.
- Knowledge Application: You will gain a deep understanding of scientific methods and learn to connect and apply them to challenges facing society today.

What reading materials and supplies will I need?

You are not required to purchase any textbooks for successful completion of this course. All readings used in this course are provided as open resources, made available to you through the UCF Library system, or posted in the modules. Links to all required readings are supplied in each online learning module. The readings may be read directly online or downloaded. Some of these may have a limited number of printable pages. If this is the case, a full print copy can also be found in the UCF Library Reserve system.

How should I plan my time for this course?

General anthropology is based on concepts and methods from biological and cultural anthropology, archaeology, and linguistic anthropology – areas of study which may be unfamiliar to many of you. While I can provide general guidelines based on past students experiences, everyone learns at a different pace, and you will need to decide how much time to set aside to be successful. Your study skills, prior knowledge of subjects, study environment, personal obligations and responsibilities play a huge role in learning and success in any course. Generally, the more time you spend on a course, the better you will do, but the quality of the time spent is even more important.

During the next 15 weeks of the Fall 2019 term, you should expect to spend around 1.5 hours of class time each week engaging in face-to-face lectures. You should also plan on setting aside at least two to three hours each week for reading and your assigned coursework posted in each learning module.
This will greatly assist you in keeping up with the materials and course due dates each week, but keep in mind, these are ‘estimates’ of time that you should devote to this course.

Please do not be tempted to skip lecture and expect to catch up easily. You will need to attend lecture on a regular basis to learn the material for all required assignments and exams. If you need any assistance with assignments or study tips for exams, please visit my office hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00-11:30am in my office in Howard Philips Hall 409P. If you have a scheduling conflict, please contact me to set an appointment. You can also visit our GTA (see menu on the left for access).

How do I get started in the course?

UCF faculty members are required to document all students’ academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the REQUIRED ACTIVITY: Academic Survey by 11:59pm EST on August 30, 2019, or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in disbursement of your financial aid.

What are the course requirements?

Summary

This course begins on August 26, 2019 and ends on December 11, 2019. Over this period, you will be expected to:

- complete a required academic activity at the start of the course
- attend class lectures
- review learning module materials, including any assigned media, learning activities and readings
- complete 10 online quizzes
- complete 3 online exams
- complete 10 online assignments

Academic Activity Assessment (week 1 only)

This is a simple survey available through the webcourse page. Failure to complete this assessment will result in delay of financial aid disbursements.

Gen-Ed Pre-Test and Post-Test

You will find access to Gen-Ed quizzes in your personal webcourses main menu. The pre-test and post-test are used by the university and our department to determine what you learned during the semester. They will not count against you. The Pre Test is due September 8 at 11:59pm. The Post Test is due December 4 at 11:59pm.

Modules

In each learning module, you will find an Introduction page outlining the expectations, readings, activities and assignments for that module. The modules contain your readings, assessments, links to information websites, and media content. Modules also contain lecture slide handouts and study guides to assist you in reviewing for your exams. All written work submitted online for grading will be evaluated for plagiarism during the grading process.

Readings

Readings are due on the day assigned. It is imperative that you do the readings before you come to class, so that you will be prepared to understand the lectures and participate in discussions.

Attendance (5% of final grade)
Attendance will be taken using the new "UCF there" app available for all smart phones. If you do not have a smart phone, come see me before the second week of classes. We will begin taking attendance the second week of classes once enrollments become stable.

Reading Quizzes (20% of final grade)

You will complete 10 reading quizzes. Questions for quizzes assess your knowledge of the readings due on the day of the face-to-face class each Tuesday. The timing and content of quizzes are designed to prepare you for lecture and activities during the face-to-face class experience.

Short Reflections (20% of final grade)

There will 10 online assignments during the semester. The assignments will ask you to respond or reflect upon an issue relevant to the course, or apply a method/theory to your own experienced. These assignments are designed to help you keep up with, comprehend, and apply material from the class lectures and readings.

Online Exams (55% of final grade)

Three exams will be administered during the semester, two midterms and one final. The exams are not cumulative. However, subsequent exams may include concepts and facts referring to material covered earlier in the course. I will inform you in advance about the material you need to review in preparation for the exam questions and provide a study guide. All exams will be taken online.

How will I be evaluated and graded?

Your final grade for the course is weighted and will be based on your performance on the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment:</th>
<th>Points Possible</th>
<th>% Final Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Attendance</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>5%</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<tr>
<td>Short Papers (2)</td>
<td>100</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>500</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

You can access your grades for assignments and exams through the ‘Grades’ link in the course menu on the left. It is your responsibility to regularly check on your grades throughout the course. Please allow for a reasonable amount of time to pass for the grading process to occur. When an assignment, quiz or exam score is posted, you will receive a notification that grades have been released (unmuted). If you have any questions about your score after a grade has been released, please notify me or your graduate teaching assistant (GTA) using WebCourses Inbox, and we will address the concern as soon as possible. Questions regarding individual scores must be addressed within one week of the grade being released.

The WebCourses system automatically grades all multiple-choice, true-false and fill-in questions; however, it will mark fill-in and short answer questions as incorrect when your answer does not exactly match the correct answer provided in the grading key. Your GTA will be 'hand-grading' each assignment, quiz and exam to ensure that you receive points for any answers not automatically recognized by the system as being correct. If point corrections are applied by the GTA during grading, the question will still show a 'red' flag indicating it is incorrect, but the point value listed at the top right corner of the question will show the value awarded for a correct answer, like the example shown here:

The following +/- grading scale will be used in this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>94 - 100%</td>

According to Section 1, “Academic Misconduct,” students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Academic Misconduct
- Cheating
- Plagiarism
- Academic Dishonesty
- Unauthorized Collaboration
- Use of Unauthorized Materials
- Misrepresentation of work
- Falsification or Manipulation of Data
- Violation of Computer Access
- Other forms of academic misconduct

How is academic integrity maintained?

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need specific access in this course, such as accommodations, should contact the professor as soon as possible to discuss various access options. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.

If you receive learning accommodations through SAS, please feel free to speak with me about any related concerns. It is always best if we can speak early about the possible need for any accessibility modifications to exams or assignments, and I will happily work with you and SAS to ensure that your needs are reasonably met in a timely fashion. If your SAS-approved accommodations include a specialized environment or equipment for testing, it is your responsibility to make the necessary arrangements to write your exams within the SAS facilities.

How is respect for diversity maintained?

This course will be conducted in a way that respects all aspects of diversity. The very nature of this course requires us to delve into topics that may make some students uncomfortable and/or discuss topics with which some students may strongly disagree. I expect everyone to show respect for one another and the diverse issues presented and discussed. While various opinions and emotions are tied to some of the topics covered, the greater purpose is to educate, not judge. Everyone must be given a chance to express their thoughts in discussion without interruption or ridicule.

Any student who acts inappropriately, makes crude, suggestive, culturally insensitive, or otherwise juvenile comments, or becomes disruptive will be blocked from participating in online and open class discussions. If you do encounter materials in the course that you find offensive or disconcerting, take a moment to explain why you are offended or unsettled and then rationally explain your concerns so we can address the issue further through class discussion or privately during office hours.

How is academic integrity maintained?

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct at http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc (http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc). According to Section 1, “Academic Misconduct,” students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Cheating
- Plagiarism
- Academic Dishonesty
- Unauthorized Collaboration
- Use of Unauthorized Materials
- Misrepresentation of work
- Falsification or Manipulation of Data
- Violation of Computer Access
- Other forms of academic misconduct

What if I miss an assignment, quiz, or exam due date?

Time management, problem solving, responsibility, and personal accountability are among the most important things you can learn during your university education. Missed or late quizzes and assignments are not accepted after their due date without a valid, verifiable excuse. Please contact the professor via WebCourses Inbox if you need to have an excuse verified and approved for make-up work.

To be fair to everyone in the course, and to the GTA who will be completing the grading, only work submitted on time will be graded unless late submission is properly approved by the professor. It is your responsibility to check the course schedule for assignment and exam due dates.

- If you are participating in an official UCF event (e.g., sports, ROTC or academic events), please provide the proper documentation in advance of a quiz, assignment or exam opening online to receive any extension on due dates.
- Students observing a holy day of their religious faith are expected to notify their instructor in advance of a quiz, assignment or exam opening online to receive any extension on due dates.
- If you are a deployed active duty or a reservist military student, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances and set any special accommodation due to your unique status.
- If you find yourself in a situation where you are going to miss an exam, you must notify me as soon as possible by telephone, e-mail, in person, or by leaving a message with the department secretary (407-823-2227) in advance of the exam closing online. You must also provide valid, verifiable documentation explaining your absence. If you are provided the opportunity to take a make-up exam, it must be scheduled and completed online within five days of the missed exam due date (if medically possible).

Is the course accessible for students with disabilities?

Incomplete grades for this course are only given in situations where unexpected and documented medical or family emergencies prevent an enrolled student in good standing from completing the remaining work. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete grade. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the ‘I’ grade will automatically be recorded as an ‘F’ on your transcript.

Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the ‘I’ grade will automatically be recorded as an ‘F’ on your transcript.
1. Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

2. Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

3. Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor's PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

4. Falsifying or misrepresenting the student's own academic work.

5. Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another's work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student's own.

6. Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

7. Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, consult the International Center for Academic Integrity http://academicintegrity.org (http://academicintegrity.org).

Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. If you are uncertain as to what constitutes academic dishonesty, please consult The Golden Rule, the University of Central Florida's Student Handbook (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/) for further details. As in all University courses, The Golden Rule Rules of Conduct will be applied. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the infraction being placed in your file and receiving a zero on the work in question AT A MINIMUM. At the instructor's discretion, you may also receive a failing grade or a Z grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the University.

Why should I use WebCourses Inbox?

In this course, our official mode of communication is through the secure WebCourses Inbox system. This is to ensure the safety of your personal information. It is your responsibility to check the WebCourses Inbox and course announcements at least two or three times per week. You may also use your UCF Knight's Email account to communicate with the professor and/or the GTA. However, if you use the UCF Knights Mail system, please use the course number in your email reference so it is easily recognized, and please do not forget to add your name at the end of the email.

When using the proper channels of communication, you can generally expect a response to your message through WebCourses Inbox within 24 hours. Please keep in mind that I, and your GTA, may only check our UCF email once, if at all, during the weekend hours (unless an exam is open) or on holidays. If you send an email on a Friday afternoon or over the weekend, you may not receive a response until the following Monday.

All communication between student and professor (or GTA) and between student and student should be respectful and professional. Please be aware that any online correspondence regarding assignments, grades, or course materials must utilize the WebCourses Inbox or UCF Knight's Mail systems. Your GTA and I will not respond to messages sent by other means, such as your Smartphone or iPad. For example, we will not respond to:

"Hey! When are exam grades posted? Did I do ok? ATM AFC!"

Sent from iPhone.

What are the technology and software requirements?

You must have access to a reliable computer and a reliable internet connection at least three times a week for this course. If you do not own a computer, there are student accessible computers in all of UCF's computer labs. For further information on UCF computer labs and a campus schedule, please see the following website: http://guides.ucf.edu/content.php?pid=137016&sid=1173345. (http://guides.ucf.edu/content.php?pid=137016&sid=1173345)

You are expected to have compatible versions of Adobe Reader, Adobe Flash, and PowerPoint Viewer (or the equivalent) installed on the computer commonly accessed so that you may properly view multimedia materials linked to the weekly content of the course. Please visit the following websites to access and install or upgrade to the most current versions of these products:

WebCourses has an online tracking system where professors can review a student’s progress and activities while logged into the course. This assists students and professors in instances where computer ‘glitches’ or ‘Internet speed bumps’ occur when submitting assignments, taking exams, etc. If you experience technical issues with WebCourses while submitting and assignment or taking an exam, it will show up in your online activity report. Therefore, the “Bill Gates ate my homework” or “I took the exam, but . . .” excuses can be traced and verified.

If you are experiencing problems accessing materials or submitting your work, please contact your professor or GTA so we can point you in the proper direction for assistance. The quickest way to receive assistance is through the ‘Help’ button located in the lower, left-hand corner, and then clicking on the most appropriate menu item.

What should I know about copyright and third-party software?

This course contains copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance your learning environment. Do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online course environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

In addition, third party sites (e.g., Study Blue, Koofers, CourseHero, etc.) may be selling or requiring log-in access to class notes and other materials from current or past versions of this course without my authorization. Please be aware that this is a violation of copyright, and these materials and previous student submissions always contain extensive errors and outdated information, which could greatly affect your performance (and therefore your grade) in this course. Use these materials at your own risk.

During this course you might also encounter public online services and/or software applications, sometimes called third-party software, such as a blog or wiki. While some of these might be related to required course materials, you will not need to release any personally identifying information on any public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your professor or GTA for assistance.

What if there is an Emergency on campus?

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html (http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html).
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF) (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to https://my.ucf.edu (https://my.ucf.edu) and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video You CAN Survive an Active Shooter (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NIKYajEx4pk&feature=youtu.be)

What is the course lecture and assignment schedule?

Changes to the course lecture and assignment schedules are not expected but may occur. Your professor reserves the right to make reasonable adjustments to the lecture and assignment schedule. You will be notified of any changes through Announcements in WebCourses.

Your lecture schedule and course materials may be accessed through the ‘Modules’ button in the course menu on the left.

- Due dates for graded work are listed in the table below and in the INTRODUCTION page of each learning module.
- Assigned readings are listed in the INTRODUCTION page of each learning module.

University Catalog Description
An introductory survey of the four major subfields of Anthropology: Social Anthropology, Physical Anthropology, Linguistics, and Archaeology.

What is this course about?
General anthropology includes everything you'll need to get acquainted with the research methodologies and theoretical approaches used by anthropologists to investigate the past and present human experience in society and the natural world. We will study each of anthropology's subfields by exploring such topics as human evolution and genetic diversity, archaeological excavations and prehistoric societies, language use and identity, and social institutions of gender, power, kinship, spiritualism and economics. Your goal is to take a fresh look at the world around you, make sense of what may seem strange or irrational, and better understand the processes, meanings and motivations behind who we are and what we do as humans.

After successfully completing this course, you should be able to:
- Identify central theoretical concepts of biological anthropology, archaeology, linguistic anthropology, and cultural anthropology and describe how these theoretical concepts contributed to the development of the discipline.
- Describe the role anthropologists play in examining social, cultural and biological assumptions about humans and explain how the anthropological perspective differs from both ethnocentrism and American exceptionalism.
- Make use of the topical or thematic specializations that exist within contemporary anthropology as examples of the range of questions and concerns anthropologists address.
• Demonstrate an understanding of scientific evidence for human evolution and biological diversity, archaeological interpretation of the past, relationship between language and culture, and positioning of social institutions and the self.
• Examine media and literature concerning human diversity, cultural interactions, and our human past to effectively recognize statements of opinion versus statements of scientific fact.

What skills will I develop in this course?

While emphasis is placed on developing the knowledge and analytical skills necessary to evaluate scientific literature and mass media statements about topics in anthropology, you will also be developing the following intellectual and practical skills needed in your higher level university study and future employment opportunities:

After successfully completing this course, you should be able to:

• Demonstrate core skills of inquiry, analysis, and critical and creative thinking.
• Demonstrate initial skills in information literacy.
• Provide opinions and factual information through written and oral communication.
• Apply intercultural knowledge in various contexts.
• Participate in teamwork and problem solving activities in an effective manner.
• Understand the importance of civic engagement on a local and global scale.

How does this course relate to my Gen-Ed Experience?

General anthropology embodies the very essence of the UCF Integrative Gen-Ed experience. The Gen-Ed experience is designed to:

• Broaden and deepen your understanding of common human themes helping you to develop an awareness of diverse cultures, and understand the cultural, historical, economic, and social implications of what you learn
• Make you successful writers, speakers, and producers of digital materials in the academic, civic, and professional worlds
• Deepen your understanding of scientific methods while learning to connect and apply them to challenges facing our society today
• Transform you into well informed citizens who can reason and apply analytical, statistical, and computational methods to the challenges of a globally-diverse and technologically rich environment
• Train you to assess and decipher information in a world of conflicting sources

Through our holistic, comparative, and relativistic approach anthropologists apply method and theory from all five dimensions of the Gen-Ed Experience to study human behavior. This particular section will emphasize primary, secondary, and tertiary learning outcomes from the following dimensions:

• Interpretation and Evaluation: You will learn to assess and decipher information in a world full of conflicting sources and to employ social science models to produce knowledge.
• Cultural Interactions: You will broaden and deepen your understanding of common human themes; develop an awareness of diverse cultures, and understand the cultural, historical, economic, and social implications of what you learn.
• Knowledge Application: You will gain a deep understanding of scientific methods and learn to connect and apply them to challenges facing society today.

What reading materials and supplies will I need?

You are not required to purchase any textbooks for successful completion of this course. All readings used in this course are provided as open resources, made available to you through the UCF Library system, or posted in the modules. Links to all required readings are supplied in each online learning module. The readings may be read directly online or downloaded. Some of these may have a limited number of printable pages. If this is the case, a full print copy can also be found in the UCF Library Reserve system.

How should I plan my time for this course?

General anthropology is based on concepts and methods from biological and cultural anthropology, archaeology, and linguistic anthropology – areas of study which may be unfamiliar to many of you. While I can provide general guidelines based on past students experiences, everyone learns at a different pace, and you will need to decide how much time to set aside to be successful. Your study skills, prior knowledge of subjects, study environment, personal obligations and responsibilities play a huge role in learning and success in any course. Generally, the more time you spend on a course, the better you will do, but the quality of the time spent is even more important.

During the next 15 weeks of the Fall 2019 term, you should expect to spend around three hours of class time each week engaging in face-to-face lectures. You should also plan on setting aside at least two to three hours each week for reading and your assigned coursework posted in each learning module. This will greatly assist you in keeping up with the materials and course due dates each week, but keep in mind, these are 'estimates' of time that you should devote to this course.

Please do not be tempted to skip lecture and expect to catch up easily. You will need to attend lecture on a regular basis to learn the material for all required assignments and exams. If you need any assistance with assignments or study tips for exams, please visit my office hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00-11:30am in my office in Howard Philips Hall 409P. If you have a scheduling conflict, please contact me to set an appointment. You can also visit our GTA (see menu on the left for access).

How do I get started in the course?

UCF faculty members are required to document all students' academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the REQUIRED ACTIVITY: Academic Survey by 11:59pm EST on August 30, 2019, or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in disbursement of your financial aid.

What are the course requirements?

Summary

This course begins on August 26, 2019, and ends on December 11, 2019. Over this period, you will be expected to:

- complete a required academic activity at the start of the course
- attend class lectures
- review learning module materials, including any assigned media, learning activities and readings
- complete 8 out of 10 online quizzes
- complete 3 exams
- complete 2 short reflection papers

Academic Activity Assessment (week 1 only)

This is a simple survey available through the webcourse page. Failure to complete this assessment will result in delay of financial aid disbursements.

Gen-Ed Pre-Test and Post-Test

You will find access to Gen-Ed quizzes in your personal webcourses main menu. The pre-test and post-test are used by the university and our department to determine what you learned during the semester. They will not count against you. The Pre Test is due September 8 at 11:59pm. The Post Test is due December 4 at 11:59pm.

Modules

In each learning module, you will find an Introduction page outlining the expectations, readings, activities and assignments for that module. The modules contain your readings, assessments, links to information websites, and media content. Modules also contain lecture slide handouts and study guides to assist you in reviewing for your exams. All written work submitted online for grading will be evaluated for plagiarism during the grading process.

Readings

Readings are due on the day assigned. It is imperative that you do the readings before you come to class, so that you will be prepared to understand the lectures and participate in discussions.

Attendance (5% of final grade)
Attendance will be taken using the new "UCF here" app available for all smart phones. If you do not have a smart phone, come see me before the second week of classes. We will begin taking attendance the second week of classes once enrollments become stable.

Reading Quizzes (15% of final grade)

You will complete 10 reading quizzes and your lowest two grades will be dropped. Questions for quizzes assess your knowledge of the readings due on the day of the face-to-face class each Tuesday. The timing and content of quizzes are designed to prepare you for lecture and activities during the face-to-face class experience.

Short Reflections (20% of final grade)

There will be two short (1-2 page) papers assigned during the semester. The assignments will ask you to respond or reflect upon an issue relevant to the course. Like the “attendance quizzes”, these short responses are low stakes assignments designed to help you keep up with, comprehend, and apply material from the class lectures and readings.

In-class Exams (60% of final grade)

Three exams will be administered during the semester, two midterms and one final. The exams are not cumulative. However, subsequent exams may include concepts and facts referring to material covered earlier in the course. I will inform you in advance about the material you need to review in preparation for the exam questions and provide a study guide.

How will I be evaluated and graded?

Your final grade for the course is weighted and will be based on your performance on the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment</th>
<th>Points Possible</th>
<th>% Final Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Attendance</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>4%</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<tr>
<td>Short Papers (2)</td>
<td>100</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>500</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

You can access your grades for assignments and exams through the 'Grades' link in the course menu on the left. It is your responsibility to regularly check on your grades throughout the course. Please allow for a reasonable amount of time to pass for the grading process to occur. When an assignment, quiz or exam score is posted, you will receive a notification that grades have been released (unmuted). If you have any questions about your score after a grade has been released, please notify me or your graduate teaching assistant (GTA) using WebCourses Inbox, and we will address the concern as soon as possible. Questions regarding individual scores must be addressed within one week of the grade being released.

The WebCourses system automatically grades all multiple-choice, true-false and fill-in questions; however, it will mark fill-in and short answer questions as incorrect when your answer does not exactly match the correct answer provided in the grading key. Your GTA will be 'hand-grading' each assignment, quiz and exam to ensure that you receive points for any answers not automatically recognized by the system as being correct. If point corrections are applied by the GTA during grading, the question will still show a 'red' flag indicating it is incorrect, but the point value listed at the top right corner of the question will show the value awarded for a correct answer, like the example shown here:

The following +/- grading scale will be used in this course:

Incomplete grades for this course are only given in situations where unexpected and documented medical or family emergencies prevent an enrolled student in good standing from completing the remaining work. Your instructor is the final authority on whether you qualify for an incomplete grade. Incomplete work must be finished by the end of the subsequent semester or the ‘I’ grade will automatically be recorded as an ‘F’ on your transcript.

What if I miss an assignment, quiz, or exam due date?

Time management, problem solving, responsibility and personal accountability are among the most important things you can learn during your university education. Missed or late quizzes and assignments are not accepted after their due date without a valid, verifiable excuse. Please contact the professor via WebCourses Inbox if you need to have an excuse verified and approved for make-up work.

To be fair to everyone in the course, and to the GTA who will be completing the grading, only work submitted on time will be graded unless late submission is properly approved by the professor. It is your responsibility to check the course schedule for assignment and exam due dates.

- If you are participating in an official UCF event (e.g., sports, ROTC or academic events), please provide the proper documentation in advance of a quiz, assignment or exam opening online to receive any extension on due dates.
- Students observing a holy day of their religious faith are expected to notify their instructor in advance of a quiz, assignment or exam opening online to receive any extension on due dates.
- If you are a deployed active duty or a reservist military student, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances and set any special accommodation due to your unique status.
- If you find yourself in a situation where you are going to miss an exam, you must notify me as soon as possible by telephone, e-mail, in person, or by leaving a message with the department secretary (407-823-2227) in advance of the exam closing online. You must also provide valid, verifiable documentation explaining your absence. If you are provided the opportunity to take a make-up exam, it must be scheduled and completed online within five days of the missed exam due date (if medically possible).

Is the course accessible for students with disabilities?

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need specific access in this course, such as accommodations, should contact the professor as soon as possible to discuss various access options. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.

If you receive learning accommodations through SAS, please feel free to speak with me about any related concerns. It is always best if we can speak early about the possible need for any accessibility modifications to exams or assignments, and I will happily work with you and SAS to ensure that your needs are reasonably met in a timely fashion. If your SAS-approved accommodations include a specialized environment or equipment for testing, it is your responsibility to make the necessary arrangements to write your exams within the SAS facilities.

How is respect for diversity maintained?

This course will be conducted in a way that respects all aspects of diversity. The very nature of this course requires us to delve into topics that may make some students uncomfortable and/or discuss topics with which some students may strongly disagree. I expect everyone to show respect for one another and the diverse issues presented and discussed. While various opinions and emotions are tied to some of the topics covered, the greater purpose is to educate, not judge. Everyone must be given a chance to express their thoughts in discussion without interruption or ridicule.

Any student who acts inappropriately, makes crude, suggestive, culturally insensitive, or otherwise juvenile comments, or becomes disruptive will be blocked from participating in online and open class discussions. If you do encounter materials in the course that you find offensive or disconcerting, take a moment to explore why you are offended or unsettled and then rationally explain your concerns so we can address the issue further through class discussion or privately during office hours.

How is academic integrity maintained?

https://webcourses.ucf.edu/courses/1335791/assignments/syllabus
Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct at http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc. According to Section 1, “Academic Misconduct,” students are prohibited from engaging in:

1. Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
2. Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
3. Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
4. Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.
5. Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.
6. Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
7. Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, consult the International Center for Academic Integrity http://academicintegrity.org.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices” http://wpacouncil.org/node/9. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. If you are uncertain as to what constitutes academic dishonesty, please consult The Golden Rule, the University of Central Florida's Student Handbook (http://www.goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/) for further details. As in all University courses, The Golden Rule Rules of Conduct will be applied. Violations of these rules will result in a record of the infraction being placed in your file and receiving a zero on the work in question AT A MINIMUM. At the instructor’s discretion, you may also receive a failing grade or a Z grade for the course. Confirmation of such incidents can also result in expulsion from the University.

Why should I use WebCourses Inbox?

In this course, our official mode of communication is through the secure WebCourses Inbox system. This is to ensure the safety of your personal information. It is your responsibility to check the WebCourses Inbox and course announcements at least two or three times per week. You may also use your UCF Knight's Email account to communicate with the professor and/or the GTA. However, if you use the UCF Knights Mail system, please use the course number in your email reference so it is easily recognized, and please do not forget to add your name at the end of the email.

When using the proper channels of communication, you can generally expect a response to your message through WebCourses Inbox within 24 hours. Please keep in mind that I, and your GTA, may only check our UCF email once, if at all, during the weekend hours (unless an exam is open) or on holidays. If you send an email on a Friday afternoon or over the weekend, you may not receive a response until the following Monday.

All communication between student and professor (or GTA) and between student and student should be respectful and professional. Please be aware that any online correspondence regarding assignments, grades, or course materials must utilize the WebCourses Inbox or UCF Knight's Mail systems. Your GTA and I will not respond to messages sent by other means, such as your Smartphone or iPad. For example, we will not respond to:

"Hey! When are exam grades posted? Did I do ok? ATM AFC!"

Sent from iPhone.

What are the technology and software requirements?

You must have access to a reliable computer and a reliable internet connection at least three times a week for this course. If you do not own a computer, there are student accessible computers in all of UCF’s computer labs. For further information on UCF computer labs and a campus schedule, please see the following website: http://guides.ucf.edu/content.php?pid=137016&sid=1173345

You are expected to have compatible versions of Adobe Reader, Adobe Flash, and PowerPoint Viewer (or the equivalent) installed on the computer commonly accessed so that you may properly view multimedia materials linked to the weekly content of the course. Please visit the following websites to access and install or upgrade to the most current versions of these products:

WebCourses has an online tracking system where professors can review a student’s progress and activities while logged into the course. This assists students and professors in instances where computer ‘glitches’ or ‘Internet speed bumps’ occur when submitting assignments, taking exams, etc. If you experience technical issues with WebCourses while submitting and assignment or taking an exam, it will show up in your online activity report. Therefore, the “Bill Gates ate my homework” or “I took the exam, but . . .” excuses can be traced and verified.

If you are experiencing problems accessing materials or submitting your work, please contact your professor or GTA so we can point you in the proper direction for assistance. The quickest way to receive assistance is through the ‘Help’ button located in the lower, left-hand corner, and then clicking on the most appropriate menu item.

What should I know about copyright and third-party software?

This course contains copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance your learning environment. Do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online course environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

In addition, third party sites (e.g., Study Blue, Koofers, CourseHero, etc.) may be selling or requiring log-in access to class notes and other materials from current or past versions of this course without my authorization. Please be aware that this is a violation of copyright, and these materials and previous student submissions always contain extensive errors and outdated information, which could greatly affect your performance (and therefore your grade) in this course. Use these materials at your own risk.

During this course you might also encounter public online services and/or software applications, sometimes called third-party software, such as a blog or wiki. While some of these might be related to required course materials, you will not need to release any personally identifying information on any public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your professor or GTA for assistance.

What if there is an Emergency on campus?

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise during class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of their surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Students should make a note of the guide’s physical location and review the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, students may need to access a first-aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those are located, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to https://my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video You CAN Survive an Active Shooter (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NIKYajEx4pk&feature=youtu.be)

What is the course lecture and assignment schedule?

Changes to the course lecture and assignment schedules are not expected but may occur. Your professor reserves the right to make reasonable adjustments to the lecture and assignment schedule. You will be notified of any changes through Announcements in WebCourses.

Your lecture schedule and course materials may be accessed through the ‘Modules’ button in the course menu on the left.
Due dates for graded work are listed in the table below and in the INTRODUCTION page of each learning module.

Assigned readings are listed in the INTRODUCTION page of each learning module.

Course Description

An introductory survey of the four major subfields of anthropology: Social Anthropology, Physical Anthropology, Linguistics, and Archaeology

This course will introduce you to the varied approaches anthropologists use to examine and explain humankind in the present and in the past. Anthropology is a broad discipline that is concerned with both biological and cultural aspects of humanity. Anthropology can be both scientific and humanistic. It looks at human biology, the evolution and origin of our species, adaptation and variation, health and nutrition. Anthropology also examines our societies, our families, our values, beliefs and ideals and the ways we interact and communicate. Anthropology takes interest in the present and the past. Four major subfields of anthropology will be covered: Cultural Anthropology, Archaeology, Biological Anthropology, and Anthropological Linguistics.

Student Learning Outcomes

When you leave this course, you will have a greater understanding and appreciation of human peoples and cultures around the globe. By bringing you into contact with different ways of life, you will understand and appreciate how arbitrary your own understanding of the world is. You will learn that you and all other humans live in culturally shaped worlds.

Required Text

Reading your textbook is a fundamental part of your education. To do well in this class, you will need to do the required readings before completing assignments. And reading will help you better understand my lectures and perform well on the tests and quizzes. By its nature, anthropology covers material that may be unfamiliar to you, and sometimes unexpected, so be sure to get the most out of your textbook.

Course Requirements

There are 15 modules to be completed in sequence. You must complete each module to proceed to the next module in the sequence. You will not be able to skip modules. There is no penalty for completing the course early. However, there are due dates for the assignments and exams and these must be completed on or before their respective due dates, not after. So, you can move as quickly as you like through the course, provided all assignments and exams are completed on or before their due dates.

Exams (3 @ 50 points each)

Three exams will cover the material from lectures and readings—in order to do well, you must both view the lectures and read the required materials. The last exam is cumulative.

Essays and Response Papers (3 @ 25 points each)

Three short essays or response papers will be due during the semester. You must carefully follow all requirements for the essays or response papers posted on the course web site to receive full credit. Failure to follow content and format guidelines can lead to a reduction in the grade of your papers. Each essay or response paper must range between 350 and 500 words and be free of spelling or grammar errors. You must use an accepted method for citation of sources. All assignments will be uploaded into Webcourses. This course will utilize the services of Turnitin.com. Please do your own work. See the section on Plagiarism below. Each assignment has a set due date and the assignment must be turned before that deadline to get full credit. Late assignments will be subject to a point deduction of 5 points per day late!

Quizzes (15 @ 5 points each)

Each module will contain a short quiz that centers on the assigned reading and lecture. Missing any or all quizzes will negatively affect your final grade.

A Note on Due Dates -a reiteration

You must take the final exam and complete assignments before their due dates. There will be no credit for missed assignments or exams except in cases of medical or family emergencies provided you supply written verification. Please note that a previously scheduled appointment or social function does not constitute an emergency. This is a full semester course, please do not fall behind.

A Note on Grading

If you dispute a grade on any part of your essays or tests, you have three days after the grade is posted to bring the matter to my attention. It is your responsibility to examine your graded material within a reasonable time after I return the material to you. Do not wait until the end of the semester to dispute your grades. Also, please do not request that your grade be rounded up at the end of the semester. I will not reply to any requests for rounding up, so don't take it personally.

Class Website

The course syllabus and information on assignments are available on Webcourses. Grades will be posted in Webcourses as well. You will be informed of important class information via e-mail or announcement on Webcourses. Please check your e-mail and the Webcourses Modules page regularly. If you fail to do so, there is a possibility that you will miss crucial material.

Extra Credit

There will be no extra credit offered.

Policy Statements

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices.”

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Unexpected Course Changes

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu (http://my.ucf.edu) and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Emergencies may occur that could affect this course's schedule.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Copyright

This course contains copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Course Description

Archaeology studies how human societies came to be and how we living in the present have built upon what those living in past discovered. This 3-credit class will explore the evolution of human society from foraging and hunting groups to the earliest cities and states.

Student Learning Outcomes

- learn why the past matters and how the past is relevant to us living in the present
- explore the diversity and commonalities of the human experience through time
- understand the effects of technological innovation, e.g. agriculture, architecture, warfare, on past societies
- understand archaeological methods of inquiry

Required Text

Course Requirements

There will be three exams in the course, the third exam is during finals week and will be cumulative. Each exam is weighted the same in your grade book.

There will be five written assignments. There will also be five required group discussions in which you will participate.

You must complete each module to proceed to the next module in the sequence. You will not be able to skip modules. There is no penalty for completing the course early. However, there are due dates for the assignments and exams and these must be completed on or before their respective due dates, not after. So, you can move as quickly as you like through the course, provided all assignments and exams are completed on or before their due dates.

Attendance/Participation and Missed Assignments

It is strongly advised that you not miss a scheduled exam or assignment. I understand that life can be unpredictable, BUT scheduling make-up exams and opening closed modules, quizzes or assignments is a great inconvenience and will only be given in the following extenuating circumstances with written documentation of said circumstance:

1) Religious holiday. Students must notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class for a religious observance. For more information, see the UCF policy.

2) Participation in official university activity. Students who represent the university in an authorized event or activity (for example, student-athletes) and who are unable to meet a course deadline due to a conflict with that event must provide the instructor with documentation in advance to arrange a make-up. No penalty will be applied. For more information, see the UCF policy.

3) Illness of yourself or dependent – a doctor’s note is required.

4) Jury duty – copy of jury summons is required.

5) Extenuating circumstances with prior notification and documentation but excluding oversleeping, forgetfulness, and alien abduction. Active duty military please see section below. Please note that previously scheduled personal appointments or social functions (weddings, cruises, trips to Disney) do not constitute an emergency and are not considered extenuating circumstances.

Please note that late assignments will suffer a point reduction. See individual assignment descriptions.

Evaluation and Grading

Your grade will be calculated based on the percentage of the total points available. For example, your total points is 325 and the total points available is 405, then your grade would be 325/405=0.802 which is 80.2%

Writing assignments and discussion posts are due at 11:59 pm on each due date. Do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignment!

All examinations are worth the same amount toward your final grade, including the final exam.

Please Note: Because writing assignments and discussion posts require more time to grade, please be patient. It may take up to two weeks to grade an assignment.

A Note on Grading

If you dispute a grade on any part of your essays or tests, you have three days after the grade is posted to bring the matter to my attention. It is your responsibility to examine your graded material within a reasonable time after I return the material to you. Do not wait until the end of the semester to dispute your grades. Also, please do not request that your grade be rounded up at the end of the semester. I will not reply to any requests for rounding up, so don’t take it personally.

Turnitin.com

In this course we will utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student’s assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you will be expected to submit assignments through the Canvas Assignment Tool in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author’s work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Policy Statements

Academic Integrity
Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct (http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc). According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices (http://wpacouncil.org/node/9)”.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. (https://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu) UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade).

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu)), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Unexpected Course Changes

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Emergencies may occur that could affect this course's schedule.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Copyright

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Course Description

An introductory survey of the four major subfields of anthropology: Social Anthropology, Physical...
Anthropology, Linguistics, and Archaeology

This course will introduce you to the varied approaches anthropologists use to examine and explain humankind in the present and in the past. Anthropology is a broad discipline that is concerned with both biological and cultural aspects of humanity. Anthropology can be both scientific and humanistic. It looks at human biology, the evolution and origin of our species, adaptation and variation, health and nutrition. Anthropology also examines our societies, our families, our values, beliefs and ideals and the ways we interact and communicate. Anthropology takes interest in the present and the past. Four major subfields of anthropology will be covered: Cultural Anthropology, Archaeology, Biological Anthropology, and Anthropological Linguistics.

Student Learning Outcomes

When you leave this course, you will have a greater understanding and appreciation of human peoples and cultures around the globe. By bringing you into contact with different ways of life, you will understand and appreciate how arbitrary your own understanding of the world is. You will learn that you and all other humans live in culturally shaped worlds.

Required Text

Reading your textbook is a fundamental part of your education. To do well in this class, you will need to do the required readings before completing assignments. And reading will help you better understand my lectures and perform well on the tests and quizzes. By its nature, anthropology covers material that may be unfamiliar to you, and sometimes unexpected, so be sure to get the most out of your textbook.

Course Requirements

There are 15 modules to be completed in sequence. You must complete each module to proceed to the next module in the sequence. You will not be able to skip modules. There is no penalty for completing the course early. However, there are due dates for the assignments and exams and these must be completed on or before their respective due dates, not after. So, you can move as quickly as you like through the course, provided all assignments and exams are completed on or before their due dates.

Total Points 300

Exams (3 @ 50 points each)

Three exams will cover the material from lectures and readings—in order to do well, you must both view the lectures and read the required materials. The last exam is cumulative.

Essays and Response Papers (3 @ 25 points each)

Three short essays or response papers will be due during the semester. You must carefully follow all requirements for the essays or response papers posted on the course web site to receive full credit. Failure to follow content and format guidelines can lead to a reduction in the grade of your papers. Each essay or response paper must range between 350 and 500 words and be free of spelling or grammar errors. You must use an accepted method for citation of sources. All assignments will be uploaded into Webcourses. This course will utilize the services of Turnitin.com. Please do your own work. See the section on Plagiarism below. Each assignment has a set due date and the assignment must be turned before that deadline to get full credit. Late assignments will be subject to a point deduction of 5 points per day late!

Quizzes (15 @ 5 points each)

Each module will contain a short quiz that centers on the assigned reading and lecture. Missing any or all quizzes will negatively affect your final grade.

A Note on Due Dates - a reiteration

You must take the final exam and complete assignments before their due dates. There will be no credit for missed assignments or exams except in cases of medical or family emergencies provided you supply written verification. Please note that a previously scheduled appointment or social function does not constitute an emergency. This is a full semester course, please do not fall behind.

A Note on Grading

If you dispute a grade on any part of your essays or tests, you have three days after the grade is posted to bring the matter to my attention. It is your responsibility to examine your graded material within a reasonable time after I return the material to you. Do not wait until the end of the semester to dispute your grades. Also, please do not request that your grade be rounded up at the end of the semester. I will not reply to any requests for rounding up, so don't take it personally.

Class Website

The course syllabus and information on assignments are available on Webcourses. Grades will be posted in Webcourses as well. You will be informed of important class information via e-mail or announcement on Webcourses. Please check your e-mail and the Webcourses Modules page regularly. If you fail to do so, there is a possibility that you will miss crucial material.

Extra Credit

There will be no extra credit offered.

Policy Statements
Policy Statements

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct (http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc). According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.
- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.
- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity. (http://www.academicintegrity.org/ica/assets/FVProject.pdf)

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices” (http://wpacouncil.org/node/9).

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf) UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see
Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Unexpected Course Changes

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Emergencies may occur that could affect this course's schedule.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Third-Party Software and FERPA
During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

- Credit Hours: 3
- Semester/Year: Fall 2019
- Location: Webcourses
Course Description

Archaeology studies how human societies came to be and how we living in the present have built upon what those living in past discovered. This 3-credit class will explore the evolution of human society from foraging and hunting groups to the earliest cities and states.

Student Learning Outcomes

- learn why the past matters and how the past is relevant to us living in the present
- explore the diversity and commonalities of the human experience through time
- understand the effects of technological innovation, e.g. agriculture, architecture, warfare, on past societies
- understand archaeological methods of inquiry

Required Text

Course Requirements

There will be three exams in the course, the third exam is during finals week and will be cumulative. Each exam is weighted the same in your grade book.

There will be five written assignments. There will also be five required group discussions in which you will participate.

You must complete each module to proceed to the next module in the sequence. You will not be able to skip modules. There is no penalty for completing the course early. However, there are due dates for the assignments and exams and these must be completed on or before their respective due dates, not after. So, you can move as quickly as you like through the course, provided all assignments and exams are completed on or before their due dates.

Attendance/Participation and Missed Assignments

It is strongly advised that you not miss a scheduled exam or assignment. I understand that life can be unpredictable, BUT scheduling make-up exams and opening closed modules, quizzes or assignments is a great inconvenience and will only be given in the following extenuating circumstances with written documentation of said circumstance:

1) Religious holiday. Students must notify their instructor in advance if they intend to miss class for a religious observance. For more information, see the UCF policy (http://catalog.ucf.edu/content.php?catoid=2&navoid=17#attendance-absences-or-unsatisfactory-work).

2) Participation in official university activity. Students who represent the university in an authorized event or activity (for example, student-athletes) and who are unable to meet a course deadline due to a conflict with that event must provide the instructor with documentation in advance to arrange a make-up. No penalty will be applied. For more information, see the UCF policy (http://catalog.ucf.edu/content.php?catoid=2&navoid=17#attendance-absences-or-unsatisfactory-work).

3) Illness of yourself or dependent – a doctor’s note is required.

4) Jury duty – copy of jury summons is required.

5) Extenuating circumstances with prior notification and documentation but excluding oversleeping, forgetfulness, and alien abduction. Active duty military please see section below. Please note that previously scheduled personal appointments or social functions (weddings, cruises, trips to Disney) do not constitute an emergency and are not considered extenuating circumstances.

Please note that late assignments will suffer a point reduction. See individual assignment descriptions.

Evaluation and Grading

Your grade will be calculated based on the percentage of the total points available. For example, your total points is 325 and the total points available is 405, then your grade would be 325/405=0.802 which is 80.2%

Writing assignments and discussion posts are due at 11:59 pm on each due date. Do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignment!

All examinations are worth the same amount toward your final grade, including the final exam.

Please Note: Because writing assignments and discussion posts require more time to grade, please be patient. It may take up to two weeks to grade an assignment.

A Note on Grading

If you dispute a grade on any part of your essays or tests, you have three days after the grade is posted to bring the matter to my attention. It is your responsibility to examine your graded material within a reasonable time after I return the material to you. Do not wait until the end of the semester to dispute your grades. Also, please do not request that your grade be rounded up at the end of the semester. I will not reply to any requests for rounding up, so don't take it personally.

Turnitin.com
In this course we will utilize turnitin.com, an automated system which instructors can use to quickly and easily compare each student’s assignment with billions of web sites, as well as an enormous database of student papers that grows with each submission. Accordingly, you will be expected to submit assignments through the Canvas Assignment Tool in electronic format. After the assignment is processed, as an instructor I receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another author’s work was used in the assignment. For a more detailed look at this process, visit http://www.turnitin.com.

Policy Statements

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct (http://osc.sdes.ucf.edu/process/roc). According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.
- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.
- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices (http://wpacouncil.org/node/9).”

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. (https://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu) UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students' education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade).

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Unexpected Course Changes

To stay informed about emergency situations, students can sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to ucf.edu (http://my.ucf.edu/) and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the toolbar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on the Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.

Emergencies may occur that could affect this course’s schedule.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Course Description

Language is part of our everyday lives. Having a linguistic approach to understanding language is one way to study it. In this course, you will learn understand language as a broad and complex category of culture and social aspects of people's lives.

The main goal of this course is to provide you with a basic understanding of various anthropological approaches to the study of language. You will learn how language both reflects and shapes thought, culture, and power. The course will explore the study of language in a variety of ways that include theory, methods, histories, and ethnographic approaches to linguistic anthropology. Linguistic anthropology, one of four main subfields of the discipline of anthropology, is a social science. As a social science, you will engage in readings, discussions, and assignments that examine and explore the role of language within culture and society. This course will explore films, cultural productions, social media, politics, global and local contexts, and much more.

Course Objectives
- Recall and explain basic terminology used in anthropological linguistics.
- Identify and discern key information from reading materials.
- Assess how the broader concepts covered in this class can be used to understand everyday speech interactions.
- Learn theories and methods for the application of linguistic anthropology.

Required Texts
  - NOTE: This textbook is also an e-book via UCF Library!!!

Supplemental Texts
Links to other required supplemental course material can be found in each module of this course.

Course Requirements

Quizzes: 6 in total based upon material for that week. 15 points each quiz.

Discussion Posts: 6 in total. Students are required to post an initial post for a discussion assignment by due date and reply to another student by a different due date. Be sure to read the discussion assignment requirements carefully. There are no extensions. Do not send your discussion post via Inbox or email. 30 points each discussion post (Initial response: 20 points; reply: 10 points). Initial post is due on designated Fridays. If you post late (as of Saturday and thereafter, you will be penalized 5 points for each day that it is late). Your response to another student is due the immediate following Sunday after your initial post.

Lyrics and Social Change Paper 100 points: Students will write a short paper (750-800 words) interpreting the lyrics of a song of your choosing from any genre or period. Lyrics must speak and represent social change and social issues.

Decolonizing Language and Identity 200 pts: For this final paper of 4 pages in length, doubler-spaced, you will write a short history, socio-cultural analysis and biographical reflection of an identity word of your choosing. This identity word can represent an identity of any form (ethnic, racial, sexual, gender, class, religious etc.) that you identify with or represents you in some way via family tradition, social community, etc. religious, etc) that you identify with or represents you in some way via family tradition, social community, or religious community, etc. This paper requires research and careful thinking. Be sure to get an early start on the paper.

Midterm 78 points: Multiple choice, True/False and short answer questions based on Ahearn chapters covered Weeks 1-7.

Final Exam 65 points: Multiple choice, True/False and short essay questions based on Ahearn chapters and other materials covered second half of the term - Weeks 8-15.

Missed Assignments/Make-Ups/Extra Credit

There are several due dates for discussion and other assignments (book review and papers) so you have to stay on top of this as no late work will be accepted without penalty. For every day that an assignment is late, 5 points are deducted. Not late work will be accepted after 3 days. Communication is key. If you feel that you are falling behind or failing the course, you may email me to explore your circumstances and any options for missed assignments or extra credit. However, extra credit assignments are extended under documentable special circumstances. There are no make-ups for missed discussion post, quizzes or exams.

Evaluation and Grading

Every week, you will have to complete either a quiz or a group discussion. I do not allow makeups of quizzes. I will consider makeups of the midterm and final exams with documentation of severe illness, family emergency, or any extreme situation that might have prevented you from taking the exam. Late discussion posts and papers will be penalized 5 points if handed in within three days of the due date. I will not accept late assignments after this grace period. You also have two paper assignments to complete during the semester. You are expected to be able to produce college-level writing. If you have trouble writing, please contact me or visit the university writing center. I am also happy to read and comment on preliminary drafts of your papers, as long as you have them to me at least ten days before the paper deadline.

Course Description

Medical anthropology is concerned with interpreting health, illness and disease, medicine, healthcare, and public health in a variety of ways and contexts both locally and globally. Medical anthropological research for decades has explored themes beyond the traditional boundaries related to issues such as bodily constructions, human rights, identity, sexuality, race, gender, and policy. This course introduces students to bio-cultural perspectives, methods, and theoretical approaches toward issues about and toward the body and community health, illness, medicine, and healthcare within the U.S. and globally. How might we understand ways in which individuals and communities negotiate issues of health and healthcare? How might we reflect upon the influences of structures and institutions such as healthcare and medicine, religion, and government toward human health and health caring practices? How might these concepts about the human body serve as lenses by which to understand interdisciplinary related issues such as gender, politics, race, religion, healthcare, ethics, tourism, and human rights? We will discuss and question the existing debates toward norms, identities, sex, freedom, justice, and rights to express and even discipline the human body and seek health. The main objective of this course is to trace how varying ideas of health and healthcare have been interpreted by anthropologists and other scholars across different contexts and complex issues. As a social science, you will engage in readings, discussions, and assignments that examine and explore culture and society. This course will explore films, cultural production, social media, politics, global and local contexts, and much more.

Course Objectives

- Introduce students to the study of medical anthropology and related topics across a variety of disciplines
- Give students an awareness of issues of health and medicine within cultures and diversity at US, international and global scales
- Encourage critical thinking on a range of dilemmas posed by the readings and films
- Develop students’ proficiency in speaking critically and writing cogently and/or persuasively and effectively about the body, health, and medical institutions
- Demonstrate applied ways for students to integrate issues of the healthcare and health into their thinking about their future lives and work, including considering many forms of action and intervention
- Learn theories and methods for the application of medical anthropology.

Required Texts

Supplemental Required Articles

Links to other required supplemental course material can be found in each module of this course.

Course Requirements

Attendance and participation: It is expected that students will attend all classes unless they have a valid excuse as determined by the professor. Class participation and demonstration of having read and reflected upon the texts is required. Students who have excessive undocumented absences will fail the course. Attendance will be taken periodically. There is no extra credit allowed for undocumented absences. Occasionally, there will be spontaneous in-class or homework activities for credit based upon the readings and topics of the week.

Strict class policy about the use of social media and cell phones in class. Please put your cell phones away. Do not use Facebook and social media while in class. Do not surf the internet for personal reasons. Be sure to speak with the professor in advance if you are experiencing difficulties or challenges with the coursework and attendance.

Quizzes: Two short essay online quizzes. 15 points each.

Discussion Posts: 5 in total. Students are required to post a response for a discussion post and reply by due date. There are no extensions. Do not send your discussion post via Inbox or email. 30 points each discussion post (Initial post: 20 points; Reply: 10 points). Your initial post is due on Fridays. If you post late (as of Saturday and thereafter, you will be penalized 5 points for each day that it is late). This assignment is not accepted via Inbox or email. Your reply to another student is due by Sunday after your post due date.

Reflection Papers: Two reflection papers based on the readings and other requirements. 3 pages, double spaced. 75 points each.

Book Review: This is a book analysis assignment based on Davis' ethnographic book. 100 points.

In-Class Assignments: There are two assignments for credit to be done in class based on the readings for that week. 15 points each. There may be random in-class assignments given for extra credit and as a learning exercise.

Debate Session: This is a group activity. In small teams, you will together research a topic dilemma given to you by the professor and develop both medical/health and anthropological evidence, ideas, questions, and argument. The debate session will occur in class. 200 points including for the report submission (100/200) required prior to your in-class session.

Research Proposal: This is your final assignment due during finals week. You will draft a short research proposal based on a topic of your choosing. Format will be given by the professor. You must submit your topic (10 points) and outline (40 points) by due dates. Research Proposal (150) Total points: 200.

Missed Assignments/Make-Ups/Extra Credit

There are several due dates for discussion and other assignments so you have to stay on top of this as no late work will be accepted without penalty. Class TA: Karli Reeves

Course description:

The traditional and changing roles of women and men viewed in a cross-cultural perspective.

Course outcomes:

1. Understand the approach the discipline of anthropology takes to the study of human beings.

2. Understand the concept of culture as used by anthropologists and the impact culture has on people’s lives.

3. Understand the importance of ethnography in researching cross-cultural human behavior.

4. Appreciate the salience of the various topics covered in class that are derived from ethnography, that increase our understanding of the intersection of sex, gender and culture.

Text: Gender in Cross-Cultural Perspective (GCCP) by Brettell and Sargent. 7th edition.

Online articles

Grading: There will be three exams. The exams will be multiple choice. Each exam will be 100 points. The exams will be a combination of the reading and class lecture/discussion. There will also be 15 assignments to be done on canvas, 10 points each.

A = 100 – 90%  B = 89 – 80%  C = 79 – 70%  D = 69 – 60%

Student Responsibilities

1. You are responsible for having access to both a web capable computer and internet access throughout the entire period of this course. Not being able to access the internet is not an acceptable excuse in a fully online course for missing a due date for either an assignment or exam.
2. You need to have MS word, Adobe Acrobat reader and Mozilla Firefox on your computer. Not having access to these capabilities is not an excuse for missing a due date for either an assignment or an exam. With the exception of MS Word all of the required programs are available for free download.

3. You are responsible for reading the syllabus, including the due dates included in the syllabus. The syllabus is available on the class homepage. Not reading the syllabus is not an excuse for missing a due date for either an assignment or an exam.

4. You are responsible for accessing the list of assignments in the class web site and taking note of the due dates for the assignments. Missing an assignment because you have not looked at the assignments page in the class web site is not an excuse for missing an assignment.

5. UCF Instructors are only allowed to communicate with students through knights mail. You are responsible for accessing your knights mail for information on the class on a bi-weekly basis. Not accessing your knights mail account is not an excuse for not receiving information on upcoming exams and exam topics. If you have problem with knights mail it is your responsibility to contact the help desk and resolve the issue.

6. Exams in this course become available on Saturday mornings at 8 am and remain available until the following Monday at 11 55 pm. The exam, once opened, will remain open for 2 – 3 hours (depending on the number of questions on the exam). You must complete the exam once you open it. There is only one chance to take an exam so be prepared before you open the exam. The only excuse for missing an exam is a documented medical emergency. The final exam is available to make up excused missed exams (not for trying to improve previous exam scores). If you do have such an emergency you are responsible for notifying your instructor through e mail before the exam availability closes. The final exam will be cumulative. You are responsible for taking the exams during the period they are available.

7. You are responsible for asking any questions you have at the time you have them of your instructor through e mail. Your instructor’s email is : vance.geiger@ucf.edu and can be found in the syllabus you are required to read. Asking questions about issues that occurred more than a day after the problem occurs is not an excuse for missing a due date for an assignment or exam.

8. The syllabus clearly delineates the grading system for the course. You are responsible for reading the syllabus and assessing how you are doing in the course. Your instructor cannot discuss grades through e mail or in any online format per FERPA regulations.

9. Your instructor cannot discuss your grades in this class to any outside interested party, no one. If you are required to obtain information on your grades in a form requiring your instructor’s signature then you must present yourself in person with ID during your instructor’s on campus office hours found in the syllabus.

10. Do not just copy and paste answers to assignment questions. Write your answers in your own words that can convince me or my Teaching Assistant that you read the material (both online material and the texts). If you write a response long enough to use a specific quote (so that the quote is less than 10% of your response) and you reference correctly then it will not be plagiarism, which it would be if you do not follow the rules.

Explanatory Note
You have chosen to take an online course. This means you have chosen to take a course that requires you to have and maintain access to the internet. It also means that you have chosen a course that requires you to have access to more technology than other available alternatives. Online courses also require more personal initiative than face to face courses that meet three or two times a week. This is a choice you have made and are therefore responsible for. Your instructor does not meet with you on a regular schedule (although there will be online office hours scheduled and your instructor does hold on campus office.

Organization of the Class
The class is organized by weeks. In week 1 there is an introduction to Anthropology and the concept of culture. After that we follow the topics and material from the text, with some additional online material.

Weekly Modules
The class is organized by weeks. Within each week there are modules and activities. The modules contain material from your instructor that supplements the texts. The supplemental modules are required. They are your instructor’s way of providing a kind of lecture. Consequently, there will be a substantial amount of material from the modules on the three exams. Further, in some cases you will not be able to do the activities unless you have done the modules. The activities are things you must do for credit.

On-Line Exams
The exams will be available for specified days (see Schedule). You must take the exam during those specified days or it will have been missed. Once you begin the exam you will have a specified time to complete it. At the end of the time it will automatically close.

On-Line assignments
Within the week to week outlines there are activities, in this case on-line assignments. These are required postings that you must make to the assignments for that week. For example, in the Week 1 Outline there is a requirement to post to some specific assignments. It is recommended that you write your posting in word, then go on-line and open that assignment and copy and paste your response. If you write first and save and then use copy and paste you will have your responses saved to your computer in case something happens. If you write the response on-line and something happens during your composition and you are not finished you will lose your work. Better to write it on your own computer and save it and then post it to the list.

Very Important note

This is not cable news. Answer the question you are asked, not the question you wished had been asked. If you do not answer the question you are asked to answer you will not receive credit.

Another important note: unless you are asked for a specific list or definition DO NOT give one sentence answers to assignment questions. These are not tweets. Paragraph per question (some assignments have more than one question) should be adequate.

Warning

Do not copy another student’s assignment into your assignment and do not copy and paste from the online material into your assignments. Both are plagiarism and the minimum penalty is a 0 for the assignment.

Important Note: Do not use attachments to post your assignment answers.

There will be NO makeup exams. Those who take all three regularly scheduled exams are exempted from the Final Make-Uo Exam. Anyone who misses a regularly scheduled exam MUST TAKE THE FINAL Final-Make Up EXAM. The Final Exam will be CUMULATIVE.

Academic Integrity

The Center for Academic Integrity (CAI) defines academic integrity as a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. From these values flow principles of behavior that enable academic communities to translate ideals into action.

http://academicintegrity.org/ (Links to an external site.)

UCF Creed: Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.
1. Integrity: I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

2. Scholarship: I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

3. Community: I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

4. Creativity: I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

5. Excellence: I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

The following definitions of plagiarism and misuse of sources come from the Council of Writing Program Administrators <http://wpacouncil.org/node/9 (Links to an external site.)> and have been adopted by UCF’s Department of Writing & Rhetoric.

Plagiarism

In an instructional setting, plagiarism occurs when a writer deliberately uses someone else’s language, ideas, or other original (not common-knowledge) material without acknowledging its source. This definition applies to texts published in print or on-line, to manuscripts, and to the work of other student writers.

Misuse of Sources

A student who attempts (even if clumsily) to identify and credit his or her source, but who misuses a specific citation format or incorrectly uses quotation marks or other forms of identifying material taken from other sources, has not plagiarized. Instead, such a student should be considered to have failed to cite and document sources appropriately.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

UCF faculty members have a responsibility for your education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to infringements of academic integrity. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student's official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

For more information about UCF's Rules of Conduct, see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/.

Unauthorized Use of Class Materials

There are many fraudulent websites claiming to offer study aids to students but are actually cheat sites. They encourage students to upload course materials, such as test questions, individual assignments, and examples of graded material. Such materials are the intellectual property of instructors, the university, or publishers and may not be distributed without prior authorization. Students who engage in such activity are in violation of academic conduct standards and may face penalties.

Unauthorized Use of Class Notes

Faculty have reported errors in class notes being sold by third parties, and the errors may be contributing to higher failure rates in some classes. The following is a statement appropriate for distribution to your classes or for inclusion on your syllabus:

Third parties may be selling class notes from this class without my authorization. Please be aware that such class materials may contain errors, which could affect your performance or grade. Use these materials at your own risk.

In-Class Recording Policy

Outside of the notetaking and recording services offered by Student Accessibility Services, the creation of an audio or video recording of all or part of a class for personal use is allowed only with the advance and explicit written consent of the instructor. Such recordings are only acceptable in the context of personal, private studying and notetaking and are not authorized to be shared with anyone without the separate written approval of the instructor.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need specific access in this course, such as accommodations, should contact the professor as soon as possible to discuss various access options. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, we will all need to work together. Everyone should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.

- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.

- Familiarize yourself with evacuation routes from each of your classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. (Insert class-specific details if appropriate)

- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (click on link from menu on left). (insert class specific information if appropriate)

- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on your Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”

- If you have a special need related to emergency situations, please speak with me during office hours.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

The best way to contact me is through e mail. It is now a requirement that all students have a knights mail account. If you do not now have one you need to request one. All communication to the whole class, such as exam notices will be through class announcements and through myucf which goes only to knights mail accounts.

Course description:

A survey of the aboriginal cultures of North America, with emphasis on the pre-contact condition.

Course outcomes:

1. Understand the approach the discipline of anthropology takes to the study of human beings.

2. Understand the concept of culture as used by anthropologists and the impact culture has on people’s lives.

3. Understand the importance of ethnography in researching cross-cultural human behavior.

4. Appreciate the importance of studying the pre-history of Native Americans and the changes that took place across North America before European contact.

5. Appreciate the intersection of subsistence, social organization and ideology for understanding indigenous Native American history and culture.

Texts:
The Timucua by Milanich
The Cheyenne by Moore
The Iroquois by Snow
The Huron by Trigger
The Navajo by Downs

This class will be an ethnographic survey of the Native Americans of different regions or culture areas in North America. The culture areas we will discuss will be: The Southeast, The Northeast, The Plains, The Southwest and the Northwest. There are five books required for the class. These books cover some of the areas we will discuss, but not all of them. Consequently, the material for the course will come from both the books and the online material.

The Texts: There are two reasons for the texts. One is that in reading the various books you can get a sense of how anthropologists conduct research on a population. Some of the books (The Iroquois, The Cheyenne) include a lot of prehistory, history (post-contact) and then ethnography on modern populations. Other books focus primarily on specific ritual or the conditions of modern populations and conducting research among them (The Navajo). The other reason for the texts is the coverage of the people this course covers, in essence the information on the various groups. The books are required and you will need to read them. I will provide summaries of the texts online but the summary will not completely make up for having read the book. You will also notice that some texts are longer than others. I have built in more time during the semester for you to read the longer books.

Total Possible = 400 points
Grading scale:
90 – 100 A, 80 – 89 B, 70 – 79 C, 60 – 69 D, 60 below = F

Organization of the Class

The class is organized by weeks. In week 1 there is an introduction to Anthropology and the concept of culture. In week 2 there is an introduction to archaeology and the early archaeology of Native American North America. The Keatley Creek document provides a good view of how archaeologists work and how they reach conclusions based on what they find. Week 3 is in introduction to the prehistory of the Southeast. Week 4 begins the discussion of specific groups, this one being the Cherokee. Subsequent weeks provide an introduction to other cultural areas in North America, the Northeast, the Plains, the Southwest and Northwest.

Misuse of Sources

A student who attempts (even if clumsily) to identify and credit his or her source, but who misuses a specific citation format or incorrectly uses quotation marks or other forms of identifying material taken from other sources, has not plagiarized. Instead, such a student should be considered to have failed to cite and document sources appropriately.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

UCF faculty members have a responsibility for your education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to infringements of academic integrity. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student's official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

For more information about UCF's Rules of Conduct, see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/.

Unauthorized Use of Class Materials

There are many fraudulent websites claiming to offer study aids to students but are actually cheat sites. They encourage students to upload course materials, such as test questions, individual assignments, and examples of graded material. Such materials are the intellectual property of instructors, the university, or publishers and may not be distributed without prior authorization. Students who engage in such activity are in violation of academic conduct standards and may face penalties.

Unauthorized Use of Class Notes

Faculty have reported errors in class notes being sold by third parties, and the errors may be contributing to higher failure rates in some classes. The following is a statement appropriate for distribution to your classes or for inclusion on your syllabus:

Third parties may be selling class notes from this class without my authorization. Please be aware that such class materials may contain errors, which could affect your performance or grade. Use these materials at your own risk.

In-Class Recording Policy

Outside of the notetaking and recording services offered by Student Accessibility Services, the creation of an audio or video recording of all or part of a class for personal use is allowed only with the advance and explicit written consent of the instructor. Such recordings are only acceptable in the context of personal, private studying and notetaking and are not authorized to be shared with anyone without the separate written approval of the instructor.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need specific access in this course, such as accommodations, should contact the professor as soon as possible to discuss various access options. Students should also connect with Student.
Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, we will all need to work together. Everyone should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Familiarize yourself with evacuation routes from each of your classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. (Insert class-specific details if appropriate)
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (click on link from menu on left). (insert class specific information if appropriate)
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on your Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- If you have a special need related to emergency situations, please speak with me during office hours.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Course Description

This class is an introduction to cultural anthropology, its methods, concepts and a survey of the cross cultural findings of anthropologists. In addition, we will be using research conducted by your instructor in a refugee camp as illustrations of the concepts you will learn and how they can be useful in understanding human behavior.

Course Objectives

- Students gain an appreciation of how culture impacts human behavior.
- Students comprehend that culture is a holistic phenomena, where subsistence, social organization, beliefs, technology, language, politics, and economics are all inter-related.
• Students understand the biological basis of culture and the unique capabilities of humans to create culture.
• Students understand the basis of natural selection and what biological evolution is.
• Students understand the relationship from some of the important developments of human evolution (bipedalism, big heads) and the biological basis of culture in Homo sapiens.
• Students understand that real cross-cultural comparisons must include all aspects of a culture including subsistence, social organization, religion and beliefs, etc.

Learning Outcomes

• Students demonstrate through answers to assignments and discussion responses that they have read and comprehended the online material and supplemental texts.
• Students demonstrate through answers to assignments that they have acquired the capability to be analytical when addressing aspects of cultures.
• Students demonstrate through answers to assignments that they have the capability to synthesize aspects of a culture to reveal the relationships between subsistence, social organization and beliefs.

Required Text

• The Hutterites in North America by John A. Hostetler
• Friend by Day, Enemy by Night: Organized Violence in A Khoistani Community
• Refugee Camp Readings provided in Webcourses

Course Requirements

Important Information: There is a syllabus quiz that you need to take before Friday 8/30 at 11:55 pm. The quiz establishes your engagement in the class for financial aid purposes so you need to take it. Failing to take the quiz by the Friday deadline can result in delaying your financial aid. The score on the quiz does not affect your grade.

The class is organized by weeks. Within each week, there are modules. The modules contain material from your instructor that supplements the texts. The modules are required. They are your instructor’s way of providing what you miss in lectures. Consequently, there will be a substantial amount of material from the modules on the exams. Further, in some cases you will not be able to do the assignments unless you have done the modules. The assignments are things you must do for credit, and they have set due dates. Please consult the schedule for more details.

Exam 3 | 100

3 Discussion posts and responses 20 points each | 60
Total | 540 points

Online Exams

The exams will be available for specified days (see schedule). You must take the exam during those specified days or it will have been missed. Once you begin the exam, you will have two hours to complete it. At the end of two hours, it will automatically close. The exams will have only multiple choice questions and you should be able to complete the exams within one hour (this is the case when your instructor gives them in face-to-face classes), but you get two hours.

Online Assignments and Discussions

Within the week to week modules, there are activities; in this case, online assignments and online discussions. These are required postings that you must make to the assignments for that week. For example, in the Week 1 Module, there is a requirement to submit some specific assignments and discussions.

In contrast to the assignments for this class, which are focused on specific material in the modules or texts, the discussions pose questions for you to engage with the class material and think about it. The discussion format is also a way to consider how other students in the class think about the material or the issues presented in the class. The goal is to create a thoughtful and analytical response to the question, and also to other student’s responses. The discussions are not for simply stating a preconceived opinion, or attempting to provoke an argument. So be thoughtful and respectful in your responses to the questions and other student’s responses.
It is recommended that you write your response in Word, then go online and open that assignment or discussion and copy and paste your response. If you write first and save and then use copy and paste, you will have your responses saved to your computer in case something happens. If you write the response online and something happens during your composition and you are not finished, you will lose your work. Better to write it on your own computer and save it and then post it to the list.

Very Important note: this is not cable news. Answer the question you are asked, not the question you wished had been asked. If you do not answer the question you are asked to answer, you will not receive credit.

Missed Assignments/Make-Ups/Extra Credit

Those who take all three regularly scheduled exams are exempted from the Final Exam. With advance notice of an issue or documented serious medical issue, I will allow a make up of an earlier exam. Anyone who misses a regularly scheduled exam MUST TAKE THE FINAL EXAM. The Final Exam will be CUMULATIVE.

Assignments have due dates. You can submit late assignments, but they receive 1/2 credit.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism and cheating of any kind on an examination, quiz, or assignment will result at least in an "F" for that assignment (and may, depending on the severity of the case, lead to an "F" for the entire course) and may be subject to appropriate referral to the Office of Student Conduct for further action. See the UCF Golden Rule for further information. I will assume for this course that you will adhere to the academic creed of this University and will maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. In other words, don't cheat by giving answers to others or taking them from anyone else. I will also adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that will not apply to everyone.

Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the professor at the beginning of the semester to discuss needed accommodations. No accommodations will be provided until the student has met with the professor to request accommodations. Students who need accommodations must connect with Student Accessibility Services, Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, phone (407) 823-2371, TTY/TDD only phone (407) 823-2116, before requesting accommodations from the professor.

Copyright

This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Academic Integrity

The Center for Academic Integrity (CAI) defines academic integrity as a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. From these values flow principles of behavior that enable academic communities to translate ideals into action.

http://academicintegrity.org/ (Links to an external site.)

UCF Creed: Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

1. Integrity: I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

2. Scholarship: I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

3. Community: I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.
4. Creativity: I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

5. Excellence: I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

The following definitions of plagiarism and misuse of sources come from the Council of Writing Program Administrators <http://wpacouncil.org/node/9 (Links to an external site.)Links to an external site.> and have been adopted by UCF’s Department of Writing & Rhetoric.

Plagiarism

In an instructional setting, plagiarism occurs when a writer deliberately uses someone else’s language, ideas, or other original (not common-knowledge) material without acknowledging its source. This definition applies to texts published in print or on-line, to manuscripts, and to the work of other student writers.

Misuse of Sources

A student who attempts (even if clumsily) to identify and credit his or her source, but who misuses a specific citation format or incorrectly uses quotation marks or other forms of identifying material taken from other sources, has not plagiarized. Instead, such a student should be considered to have failed to cite and document sources appropriately.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

UCF faculty members have a responsibility for your education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to infringements of academic integrity. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

For more information about UCF’s Rules of Conduct, see http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/.
Unauthorized Use of Class Materials

There are many fraudulent websites claiming to offer study aids to students but are actually cheat sites. They encourage students to upload course materials, such as test questions, individual assignments, and examples of graded material. Such materials are the intellectual property of instructors, the university, or publishers and may not be distributed without prior authorization. Students who engage in such activity are in violation of academic conduct standards and may face penalties.

Unauthorized Use of Class Notes

Faculty have reported errors in class notes being sold by third parties, and the errors may be contributing to higher failure rates in some classes. The following is a statement appropriate for distribution to your classes or for inclusion on your syllabus:

Third parties may be selling class notes from this class without my authorization. Please be aware that such class materials may contain errors, which could affect your performance or grade. Use these materials at your own risk.

In-Class Recording Policy

Outside of the notetaking and recording services offered by Student Accessibility Services, the creation of an audio or video recording of all or part of a class for personal use is allowed only with the advance and explicit written consent of the instructor. Such recordings are only acceptable in the context of personal, private studying and notetaking and are not authorized to be shared with anyone without the separate written approval of the instructor.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need specific access in this course, such as accommodations, should contact the professor as soon as possible to discuss various access options. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons, 7F, Room 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.
Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, we will all need to work together. Everyone should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide's physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Familiarize yourself with evacuation routes from each of your classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency. (Insert class-specific details if appropriate)
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/AEDlocations-UCF (click on link from menu on left). (insert class specific information if appropriate)
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on “Student Self Service” located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue “Personal Information” heading on your Student Center screen, click on “UCF Alert”, fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click “Apply” to save the changes, and then click “OK.”
- If you have a special need related to emergency situations, please speak with me during office hours.
- Consider viewing this video (You CAN Survive an Active Shooter (Links to an external site.)) about how to manage an active shooter situation on campus or elsewhere.

Deployed Active Duty Military Students
If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Required Course Materials/Resources

Anthropology: What Does It Mean to be Human? 4th Edition
By Robert H. Lavenda & Emily A. Schultz, Oxford University Press.

Course Description

This course introduces students to the dynamic discipline of anthropology as it exists in the contemporary world. Such an understanding requires a historical perspective and broad foundation because anthropology takes as its subject a wide range of topics (basically, everything humans do, have done, and will do). This variation is partially a product of anthropologists identifying with one or more of four broadly defined sub-disciplines. These sub-disciplines are biological, archaeological, social/cultural, and linguistic. Questions asked by anthropologists include the evolution of modern humans and primate behavior (biological anthropology); the diversity of languages, their origins, and spread across the planet (linguistic anthropology); documenting and understanding the multiplicity of cultural groups throughout the world (cultural anthropology); and the experiences of past peoples as evidenced through their material remains (archaeological anthropology). This course will demonstrate the vitality of anthropology in our rapidly changing world.

Student Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, each student will:
• Apply anthropological concepts and critical reasoning skills to culture, human diversity, and the modern world around you
• Have a detailed knowledge of anthropology’s sub-disciplines, how they have been re-configured over time, and the major methods employed by each
• Understand the evolutionary sequence beginning approximately 5-6 million years ago leading up to modern humans
• Understand the rise of social complexity and the trajectory of economic, political, and legal systems across time and space
• Develop an appreciation for the wide range of cultural perspectives on kinship, domestic life, reproduction, and illness
• Understand how anthropology contributes to the modern world by exploring the development of religions, expressive cultures, and the importance of cross-cultural communication
• Increase their knowledge of the interconnectedness of our world, and how our world is transforming because of globalization and development, migration, and new media

Grading

Grades will be determined from four exams, a digital storytelling project, and in-class exercises. Students are expected to complete assigned readings prior to attending class (this facilitates thoughtful engagement with material) and/or other assignments (e.g., exams).

Your grades will come from the following:

- Four Exams: 240 possible points
- Two Video Responses: 20 possible points
- Eight In-Class Exercises: 40 possible points

Breakdown of Grading

Four Exams: Exams will consist of multiple choice, T/F, and short answer questions. Each exam is worth 60 points. Students will have 90 minutes to complete exams. Exams are administered via WebCourses and will be available for 24 hours (all times are EST). Questions are drawn from lectures and readings. There is NO cumulative final exam. I DO NOT post study guides. [Total Points: 240]

Two Video Responses: Students will watch videos available through one of UCF’s streaming video sites (e.g., Alexander Street). Students will be provided with a list of questions to answer while watching the video, and an online quiz will assess these answers. Quizzes are available between Monday and Friday the week they are due. [Total Points: 20]

Eight In-Class Exercises: A series of short in-class assignments will allow students to engage with one another and the instructor on a wide variety of topics. In-class exercises will be turned in on a single 3 x 5 inch notecard, with the name and NID of each student clearly written above the upper line on each card.
Total Possible Points: 300

Course Grading Scale

Students are responsible for keeping up with their own grades. To determine your current grade, divide the points earned (your grades) by the total available points and multiply the result by 100. This provides your percentage grade. For instance, if you have earned 90 out of 100 possible points, $90/100 = .9 \times 100 = 90\%$.

A    94-100     A-  90-93.9
B+   87-89.9    B  84-86.9  B-  80-83.9
C+   77-79.9    C  74-76.9  C-  70-73.9
D+   67-69.9    D  64-66.9  D-  60-63.9
F    59.9 and below

Extra Credit Opportunities

I offer one extra credit opportunity during the semester. This is a syllabus quiz and serves as the confirmation of academic activity. In other words, it allows you to receive financial aid. It is available beginning the first day of class. It is a short quiz that acknowledges your acceptance and understanding of the material in this syllabus. You can take it an unlimited number of times.

In-Class Use of Technology

Laptops are allowed if used for notetaking, although research suggests that taking notes by hand is better for long-term retention. If you use a laptop, consider turning off wifi during class (challenge accepted?). Superfluous cell phone use is not allowed during class. If you are expecting an important text (e.g., relative giving birth) please approach the instructor before class (don’t email/message). All students are permitted to keep cell phones one for emergency purposes, but recreational texting and internet surfing is disrespectful and disruptive to the class.

Attendance and Make-Up Policies

Attendance is not taken in this class but is highly recommended. Exam questions come from the lectures, textbook(s), and additional readings. Make-up exams and assignments are only granted if arranged prior to the due date in this syllabus, or when accompanied by appropriate documentation after the due date. Appropriate documentation includes a doctor’s note, police report, or similar document. Inappropriate documentation includes photographs, screenshots of text messages, and similar things.

Per university policy, you can submit make-up work for authorized university-sponsored activities, religious observances, or legal obligations. If this participation conflicts with your course assignments, students have 5 days to make up an assignment or exam for full credit. It is each student’s responsibility to provide a signed copy of the Program Verification Form to the instructor prior to the class in which the absence occurs.

It is the responsibility of students to make sure they have adequate internet connectivity and computer resources to complete all online work. This includes completing online exams and submitting assignments by the due date listed in this syllabus.

If a student fails to contact the instructor before a due date or provide documentation after the date, they still have 5 days to turn in exams and assignments. The penalty for this is -2% per day. These point deductions are automatically applied in the WebCourses gradebook. To avoid this penalty either (a) turn in work on time, (b) contact the instructor ahead of time, or (c) have documentation proving the missed work was not the student’s fault.

The above policies are non-negotiable.

Contacting the Instructor

I prefer students contact me via WebCourses (sometimes referred to as course mail). You can also email me. If you email me, put “ANT 2000 OM02” in the subject line. Why? Your email has a better chance of getting quickly answered if you do so.

Allow up to two days (48 hours) for a response, especially on the weekends. I strongly encourage students carefully compose their messages. It only takes a few seconds and demonstrates that you care about the course. Below are some pointers on what NOT to do.
Contacting the Instructor Concerning Your Grade(s)

Students are encouraged to wait 24 hours before contacting the instructor and/or TAs about grades. This includes answers to specific questions. Why? If you are unhappy with a grade, waiting 24 hours will allow you to calmly discuss your concerns. It also allows the instructor and TAs to address issues as they arise (accidents, WebCourses problems, etc.). DO NOT contact the instructor to ask for additional extra credit, free points, or to round up your grade. It is each student’s responsibility to keep track of their grade throughout the semester.

Addressing Me

I prefer to be addressed as Dr. GT, Dr. Gonzalez-Tennant, Professor GT, or Professor Gonzalez-Tennant. Why? It is easier for you to say. If you insist on incorrectly addressing me (Mr. Gonzalez, Dr. Tennant, etc.), I may deduct points. Would you forget your boss’ name, or a co-worker? Take this as a real-world lesson.

Respect for Diversity

This class will be conducted in a way that respects diversity. Everyone will show respect for one another and the diverse issues and topics we cover. Failure to respect one another is not the same as not engaging. If you have a controversial opinion, or are nervous to raise it publicly, please privately reach out to me. Courses are better off with engagement, even large ones. My own views may surprise you. Do not expect the classic 'liberal' academic mindset. I am a first-generation college student who started college in my mid-20s and have previously worked several non-academic jobs. I am also attracted to critical and radical perspectives.

Course Schedule

I will post PDFs of lecture notes and other relevant materials at the beginning of each week.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges. You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

Non-Academic Services and Resources

A list of non-academic support and services is also available at UCF Student Services. Click on "Support" on the right-hand side to filter.
If you are a UCF Online student, please consult the UCF Online Student Guidelines for more information about your access to non-academic services.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:
• Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

• Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

• Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

• Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

• Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

• Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

• Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity. For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices”.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

I adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that do not apply to everyone. Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable.Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Third-Party Software and FERPA
During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Required Course Materials/Resources

By Clark Spencer Larson, W. W. Norton.

Course Description

This course introduces students to physical anthropology, one of the four traditional subfields of anthropology. Physical anthropology utilizes many lines of evidence to holistically understand human evolution, our closest living biological relatives (e.g., primates), and the ancestors of these groups. The course is divided into two broad sections. The first explores physical anthropology in the present. This includes developing an understanding of biological evolution and genetics, as well as reviewing biological diversity among living populations of humans. We will also examine living primates during this section. The second section examines evidence related to ancestral groups, and includes examinations of the fossil record, early hominin origins, dispersal of modern peoples, and impacts related to the last 10,000 years of cultural change.

Student Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, each student will:

- Provide an overview of the major areas of biological anthropology.
- Provide an overview of the history of evolutionary thought.
- Provide an overview of modern genetics and evolutionary forces.
• Provide an overview of the living primates.
• Provide an overview of human evolution.
• Provide an overview of modern human variation and adaptation

Grading

Grades will be determined from four exams, and a series of graded assignments (e.g., video responses, labs). Students are expected to complete assigned readings prior to class. Make-up exams and assignments are typically granted only if arranged prior to the assignment's original date as listed in this syllabus. Exceptions to this rule are allowed when accompanied by appropriate documentation (i.e. doctor’s note).

Your grades will come from:

Four Exams 240 possible points
Two Film Responses 20 possible points
Three Lab Activities 30 possible points
Six In-Class Exercises 30 possible points

Breakdown of Grading

Four Exams: Exams will consist of multiple choice, T/F, and short answer questions. Each exam is worth 60 points. Students will have 90 minutes to complete exams. Exams are administered via WebCourses and will be available for 24 hours (all times are EST). Questions are drawn from lectures and readings. There is NO cumulative final exam. We will not hold class on the days exams take place, allowing students to use class time to complete each exam.
[Total Points: 240]

Two Video Responses: Students will watch videos available through one of UCF’s streaming video sites (e.g., Alexander Street). Students will be provided with a list of questions to answer while watching the video, and an online quiz will assess these answers. Quizzes are available between Monday and Friday the week they are due.
[Total Points: 20]

Three In-Class Lab Activities: The lab activities include: (1) Hardy-Weinburg Equilibrium Lab examines how gene frequencies change from generation to generation; (2) Arboreal Quadruped Lab splits students into groups as they follow one of UCF’s many arboreal quadrupeds around campus; and (3) 3D Hominins Lab allows students to examine a series of 3D models depicting 6 million years of human evolution. Students will either use a sheet of college-ruled paper or be provided with handouts for all labs. Labs are turned in during class.
[Total Points: 30]

Six In-Class Exercises: A series of short in-class assignments will allow students to engage with one another and the instructor on a wide variety of topics. In-class exercises will be turned in during class on a single 3 x 5 inch notecard, with the name and NID of each student clearly written above the upper line on each card.
Course Grading Scale

Students are responsible for keeping up with their own grades. To determine your current grade, divide the points earned (your grades) by the total available points and multiply the result by 100. This provides your percentage grade. For instance, if you have earned 90 out of 100 possible points, 90/100 = .9 x 100 = 90%.

Extra Credit Opportunities

I offer one extra credit opportunity during the semester. This is a syllabus quiz and serves as the confirmation of academic activity. In other words, it allows you to receive financial aid. It is available beginning the first day of class. It is a short quiz that acknowledges your acceptance and understanding of the material in this syllabus. You can take it an unlimited number of times.

In-Class Use of Technology

Laptops are allowed if used for notetaking, although research suggests that taking notes by hand is better for long-term retention. If you use a laptop, consider turning off wifi during class (challenge accepted?). Superfluous cell phone use is not allowed during class. If you are expecting an important text (e.g., relative giving birth) please approach the instructor before class (don’t email/message). All students are permitted to keep cell phones one for emergency purposes, but recreational texting and internet surfing is disrespectful and disruptive to the class.

Attendance and Make-Up Policies

Attendance is not taken in this class but is highly recommended. Exam questions come from the lectures, textbook(s), and additional readings. Make-up exams and assignments are only granted if arranged prior to the due date in this syllabus, or when accompanied by appropriate documentation after the due date. Appropriate documentation includes a doctor’s note, police report, or similar document. Inappropriate documentation includes photographs, screenshots of text messages, and similar things.

Per university policy, you can submit make-up work for authorized university-sponsored activities, religious observances, or legal obligations. If this participation conflicts with your course assignments, students have 5 days to make up an assignment or exam for full credit. It is each
It is the responsibility of students to make sure they have adequate internet connectivity and computer resources to complete all online work. This includes completing online exams and submitting assignments by the due date listed in this syllabus.

If a student fails to contact the instructor before a due date or provide documentation after the date, they still have 5 days to turn in exams and assignments. The penalty for this is -2% per day. These point deductions are automatically applied in the WebCourses gradebook. To avoid this penalty either (a) turn in work on time, (b) contact the instructor ahead of time, or (c) have documentation proving the missed work was not the student’s fault.

The above policies are non-negotiable.

Contacting the Instructor

I prefer students contact me via WebCourses (sometimes referred to as course mail). You can also email me. If you email me, put “ANT 2511 0002” in the subject line. Why? Your email has a better chance of getting quickly answered if you do so.

Allow up to two days (48 hours) for a response, especially on the weekends. I strongly encourage students carefully compose their messages. It only takes a few seconds and demonstrates that you care about the course. Below are some pointers on what NOT to do.
Contacting the Instructor Concerning Your Grade(s)

Students are encouraged to wait 24 hours before contacting the instructor and/or TAs about grades. This includes answers to specific questions. Why? If you are unhappy with a grade, waiting 24 hours will allow you to calmly discuss your concerns. It also allows the instructor and TAs to address issues as they arise (accidents, WebCourses problems, etc.). DO NOT contact the instructor to ask for additional extra credit, free points, or to round up your grade. It is each student’s responsibility to keep track of their grade throughout the semester.

Addressing Me

I prefer to be addressed as Dr. GT, Dr. Gonzalez-Tennant, Professor GT, or Professor Gonzalez-Tennant. Why? It is easier for you to say. If you insist on incorrectly addressing me (Mr. Gonzalez, Dr. Tennant, etc.), I may deduct points. Would you forget your boss’ name, or a co-worker? Take this as a real-world lesson.

Respect for Diversity

This class will be conducted in a way that respects diversity. Everyone will show respect for one another and the diverse issues and topics we cover. Failure to respect one another is not the same as not engaging. If you have a controversial opinion, or are nervous to raise it publicly, please privately reach out to me. Courses are better off with engagement, even large ones. My own views may surprise you. Do not expect the classic 'liberal' academic mindset. I am a first-generation college student who started college in my mid-20s and have previously worked several non-academic jobs. I am also attracted to critical and radical perspectives.

Course Schedule

I will post PDFs of lecture notes and other relevant materials at the beginning of each week.

Week 1: Aug. 26 – 30
Topic: Course Introduction & What is Physical Anthropology?
Readings: Chapter 1
Assignments: Syllabus Quiz, GEP Quiz

Week 2: Sept. 2 – 6
Topic: Evolution
Readings: Chapter 2
Assignments: In-Class Exercise 1 – Evolution is a Fact and a Theory

Week 3: Sept. 9 – 13
Topic: Genetics
Readings: Chapter 3
Assignments: In-Class Exercise 2 – Punnett Square

Week 4: Sept. 16 – 20 (No Class Thursday for Exam 1)
Topic: Genes and Their Evolution
Readings: Chapter 4
Assignments: Lab 1 – Hardy-Weinberg Equilibrium Lab
Exam 1: Covers Chapters 1-4. Available 12:00am to 11:59pm Sept. 19.

Week 5: Sept. 23 – 27
Topic: Biology in the Present
Readings: Chapter 5
Assignments: Video 1 Response – State of Eugenic

Week 6: Sept. 30 – Oct. 4
Topic: The Other Living Primates
Readings: Chapter 6
Assignments: In-Class Exercise 3 – Defining Primate Characteristics
Week 7: Oct. 7 – 11
Topic: Primate Sociality
Readings: Chapter 7

Week 8: Oct. 14 – 18 (No Class Thursday for Exam 1)
Topic: Primate Sociality
Readings: Chapter 7

Assignments: Lab 2 – Arboreal Quadruped Lab
Exam 2: Covers Chapters 5-7. Available 12:00am to 11:59pm Oct. 17.

Week 9: Oct. 21 – 25
Topic: Fossils
Readings: Chapter 8

Week 10: Oct. 28 – Nov. 1 (Withdrawal Deadline is Nov. 1)
Topic: Primate Origins and Evolution
Readings: Chapter 9

Assignments: In-Class Exercise 4 – Why Are There Still Monkeys?

Week 11: Nov. 4 – 8 (No Class Thursday for Exam 1)
Topic: Early Hominin Origins
Readings: Chapter 10

Exam 3: Covers Chapters 8-10. Available 12:00am to 11:59pm Nov. 7.

Week 12: Nov. 11 – 15
Topic: Origins and Evolution of Early Homo
Readings: Chapter 11

Assignments: Lab 3 – 3D Hominins Lab

Week 13: Nov. 18 – 22
Topic: Origins, Evolution, and Dispersal of Modern Peoples
Readings: Chapter 12

Assignments: In-Class Exercise 5 – What Is This Artifact?

Week 14: Nov. 25 – 29 (No Classes Nov. 27 – 29)
Readings: Chapter 12

Assignment: Video 2 Response – Dawn of Humanity (No Class Tuesday)
Week 15: Dec. 2 – 4 (Last Day of Class on Dec. 4)
Topic: Our Last 10,000 Years
Readings: Chapter 13

Assignments: In-Class Exercise 6 – The Future of Us
Exam IV: Covers Chapters 11-13. Available 12:00am to 11:59pm Dec. 5.

Academic Services and Resources

A list of available academic support and learning services is available at UCF Student Services. Click on "Academic Support and Learning Services" on the right-hand side to filter.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges. You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

Non-Academic Services and Resources

A list of non-academic support and services is also available at UCF Student Services. Click on "Support" on the right-hand side to filter.
If you are a UCF Online student, please consult the UCF Online Student Guidelines for more information about your access to non-academic services.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
• Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

• Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

• Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

• Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

• Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

• Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity. For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices”.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

I adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that do not apply to everyone. Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety Statement
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on "Student Self Service" located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue "Personal Information" heading on your Student Center screen, click on "UCF Alert," fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click "Apply" to save the changes, and then click "OK."
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video. You CAN Survive an Active Shooter

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Copyright

This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

UCF Cares

During your UCF career, you may experience challenges including struggles with academics, finances, or your personal well-being. UCF has a multitude of resources available to all students. Please visit UCFCares.com if you are seeking resources and support, or if you are worried about a friend or classmate. Free services and information are included for a variety of student concerns, including but not limited to alcohol use, bias incidents, mental health concerns, and financial challenges. You can also e-mail ucfcares@ucf.edu with questions or for additional assistance. You can reach a UCF Cares staff member between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling 407-823-5607. If you are in immediate distress, please call Counseling and Psychological Services to speak directly with a counselor 24/7 at 407-823-2811, or please call 911.

Non-Academic Services and Resources

A list of non-academic support and services is also available at UCF Student Services. Click on "Support" on the right-hand side to filter.
If you are a UCF Online student, please consult the UCF Online Student Guidelines for more information about your access to non-academic services.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
• Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

• Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

• Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

• Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

• Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

• Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity. For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices.”

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

I adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity, so please do not ask me to change (or expect me to change) your grade illegitimately or to bend or break rules for one person that do not apply to everyone. Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu, phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

Campus Safety Statement
Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, everyone needs to work together. Students should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on "Student Self Service" located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue "Personal Information" heading on your Student Center screen, click on "UCF Alert," fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click "Apply" to save the changes, and then click "OK."
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video. You CAN Survive an Active Shooter

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Required Course Materials/Resources

Bense, Judith A. 2009. Archaeology of the Southeastern United States: Paleoindian to World War I. Walnut Creek, California: Left Coast Press.

Other readings as provided in WebCourses.

Course Description

A study of the social and cultural history of the Indians of the Southeastern US from ancient times to the present as revealed through archaeological, ethnohistorical, and ethnographic research. The Southeastern US has a rich and fascinating array of cultural traditions including the invention of pottery, mound building, early chiefly societies, and some of the nation’s most recognizable indigenous groups. The course includes examples from across the Southeast but focuses on the Gulf Coast states. It is divided into two general sections. The first, corresponding to the first 2/3 of the semester, explores the period before European contact. This begins with the Paleoindian period beginning 14,000 years ago or more. This is followed by the Archaic (10000 - 1000 BC), Woodland (1000 BC - AD 1000), and Mississippian (AD 1000 – 1500) periods. Topics explored in this section include the emergence of social inequality, origins of agriculture, migration, monumentality, and urbanism. The second section, corresponding to the final 1/3 of the semester, explores the Contact (AD 1500 - 1700), Colonial (AD 1700 – 1900), and Modern (AD 1900 - present) periods. Topics explored in this section include effects of the Spanish mission system, maroonage, resistance, and survival.
Student Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, each student will:
- Know the disciplinary history of archaeology and ethnography in the Southeastern US
- Understand the complex and varied adaptations of prehistoric and historic peoples
- Explore opposing arguments over how to interpret the material records
- Understand the breadth and depth of Southeastern Indian history and culture
- Differentiate between theoretical schools (e.g., processual, interpretive)
- Gain regional expertise to support original student research
- Understand the process of researching and writing an original paper

Grading

Grades are based on in-class participation, weekly discussion questions, two essay exams, and two research projects exploring a common theme connecting prehistoric and historical periods in Southeastern indigenous history. Students will complete assigned readings prior to attending class.

Your grades will come from the following:

- In-Class Participation 10 possible points
- Weekly Discussion Questions 20 possible points
- Semester Research Project 70 possible points

Breakdown of Grading

In-Class Participation: This is a discussion-based course, meaning there are not formal lectures. The instructor will lead discussions on Mondays and Wednesdays are typically reserved for group discussions exploring weekly discussion questions (see below). An online discussion section will open following class on Wednesday and remain available until midnight Sunday. This contributes to the courses mixed mode format. It is expected that each student will contribute to most weeks (10/15 or so) in class or via the online discussion. Grades will be recorded as complete/incomplete in WebCourses and the final points determined based on frequency and quality.
 [Total Points: 10]

Weekly Discussion Questions: To facilitate discussion students will select one reading each week and submit two questions via WebCourses by noon on Tuesday. This is only required for 10 weeks out of the entire semester. See Course Schedule for a list of which weeks questions are due.
 [Total Points: 20]

Semester Research Project (SRP): Students will select from a list of topics to explore during the semester. These topics will be discussed in class and assigned readings grouped accordingly. Students will explore their selected theme throughout the semester and how they changed between the prehistoric and historic periods. The project consists of a 2-page statement of intent (10 points), a list of 10 sources combining up to 5 sources from this syllabus with additional sources identified through independent research (5 points), an annotated bibliography of 5 sources identified through independent research (10 points), a four-page final research paper (25 points), and a final presentation summarizing the student's research project (20 points). Rubrics and further instructions will be provided during the semester.

[Total Points: 70]

Course Grading Scale

Students are responsible for keeping up with their own grades. To determine your current grade, divide the points earned (your grades) by the total available points and multiply the result by 100. This provides your percentage grade. For instance, if you have earned 90 out of 100 possible points, 90/100 = .9 x 100 = 90%.

A     94-100     A-     90-93.9
B+   87-89.9    B     84-86.9    B-   80-83.9
C+   77-79.9    C     74-76.9    C-   70-73.9
D+   67-69.9    D     64-66.9    D-   60-63.9
F     59.9 and below

Extra Credit Opportunities

I offer one extra credit opportunity during the semester. This is a syllabus quiz and serves as the confirmation of academic activity. In other words, it allows you to receive financial aid. It is available beginning the first day of class. It is a short quiz that acknowledges your acceptance and understanding of the material in this syllabus. You can take it an unlimited number of times.

In-Class Use of Technology

Laptops are allowed if used for notetaking, although research suggests that taking notes by hand is better for long-term retention. If you use a laptop, consider turning off wifi during class (challenge accepted?). Superfluous cell phone use is not allowed during class. If you are expecting an important text (e.g., relative giving birth) please approach the instructor before class (don’t email/message). All students are permitted to keep cell phones one for emergency purposes, but recreational texting and internet surfing is disrespectful and disruptive to the class.

Attendance and Make-Up Policies

Attendance is not taken in this class but is highly recommended. Exam questions come from the lectures, textbook(s), and additional readings. Make-up exams and assignments are only granted if arranged prior to the due date in this syllabus, or when accompanied by appropriate documentation after the due date. Appropriate documentation includes a doctor’s note, police report, or similar document. Inappropriate documentation includes photographs, screenshots of text messages, and similar things.
Per university policy, you can submit make-up work for authorized university-sponsored activities, religious observances, or legal obligations. If this participation conflicts with your course assignments, students have 5 days to make up an assignment or exam for full credit. It is each student’s responsibility to provide a signed copy of the Program Verification Form to the instructor prior to the class in which the absence occurs.

It is the responsibility of students to make sure they have adequate internet connectivity and computer resources to complete all online work. This includes submitting assignments by the due date listed in this syllabus.

If a student fails to contact the instructor before a due date or provide documentation after the date, they still have 5 days to turn in exams and assignments. The penalty for this is -2% per day. These point deductions are automatically applied in the WebCourses gradebook. To avoid this penalty either (a) turn in work on time, (b) contact the instructor ahead of time, or (c) have documentation proving the missed work was not the student’s fault.

The above policies are non-negotiable.

Contacting the Instructor

I prefer students contact me via WebCourses (sometimes referred to as course mail). You can also email me. If you email me, put “ANT 3311” in the subject line. Why? Your email has a better chance of getting quickly answered if you do so. Allow up to two days (48 hours) for a response, especially on the weekends. I strongly encourage students carefully compose their messages. It only takes a few seconds and demonstrates that you care about the course.

Contacting the Instructor Concerning Your Grade(s)

Students are encouraged to wait 24 hours before contacting the instructor and/or TAs about grades. This includes answers to specific questions. Why? If you are unhappy with a grade, waiting 24 hours will allow you to calmly discuss your concerns. It also allows the instructor and TAs to address issues as they arise (accidents, WebCourses problems, etc.). DO NOT contact the instructor to ask for additional extra credit, free points, or to round up your grade. It is each student’s responsibility to keep track of their grade throughout the semester.

Addressing Me

I prefer to be addressed as Dr. GT, Dr. Gonzalez-Tennant, Professor GT, or Professor Gonzalez-Tennant. Why? It is easier for you to say. If you insist on incorrectly addressing me (Mr. Gonzalez, Dr. Tennant, etc.), I may deduct points. Would you forget your boss’ name, or a co-worker? Take this as a real-world lesson.

Respect for Diversity

This class will be conducted in a way that respects diversity. Everyone will show respect for one another and the diverse issues and topics we cover. Failure to respect one another is not the same as not engaging. If you have a controversial opinion, or are nervous to raise it publicly, please privately reach out to me. Courses are better off with engagement, even large ones. My own views may surprise you. Do not expect the classic 'liberal' academic mindset. I am a first-generation college student who started college in my mid-20s and have previously worked several non-academic jobs. I am also attracted to critical and radical perspectives.

Course Schedule

The following readings are either part of the required textbooks or will be provided to students as PDF files in WebCourses. See the Bibliography section for more information.

Course Description and Scope
The focus of this course is a general overview of biological or physical anthropology. We will be using many lines of evidence to form a holistic picture of human evolution. In the first section of the course we will examine the processes of evolution and other important background concepts. During the second section we will examine our non-human primate relatives to see what they can tell us about ourselves as humans. Finally, in the last section we will study the human fossil and archaeological records, and the spectrum of variation found in modern humanity.

Please note that this class deals heavily with human evolution and evolutionary theory. This is not a debate class!! This class accepts the overwhelming scientific evidence that supports evolutionary theory. I completely respect all religious beliefs and/or personal perspectives; however, the course content will not be altered. There will be no special accommodations given based on any personal beliefs. This is what the class is about! If you take issue with the course content, I urge you to drop this class and take another GEP Science Foundation course. Or stick around, you could find it interesting!

Course Catalog Description: Human biological variation in an evolutionary perspective.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course you will be able to determine or have the skills to:

- identify and explain the major objectives, methods and concepts of physical anthropology
- understand the place of humans within the Order Primates, and our relationship to modern living primates
- place the major events and trends in hominoid evolution in their chronological and geographical contexts
- describe several different phylogenetic hypotheses of human evolution
- understand human variation and what makes us different
- describe the fundamental elements that make us human

Required Text:

(available at the bookstore & used copies may be available at Amazon.com):

Title: Essentials of Biological Anthropology, 4th Edition By Clark Spencer Larsen
Publisher: Norton
Year: 2018 ISBN: 978-0393667431

NO ACCESS CODE IS NECESSARY. YOU ONLY NEED TO PURCHASE THE TEXT.

Please Note: It is important that you have the 4th edition of this text, as all quizzes and assignments are based on this new edition.

Required Tools
1. A functioning computer with access to internet and websites
2. Adobe reader (or another tool that makes pdf's accessible and able to be read)
3. Headphones (if working in a public space so that video clips may be watched)

Course Requirements:
This course begins on August 26, 2019 and ends on December 9, 2019. This course is a self paced course, so you may go at your own speed. However, modules are grouped together and due on specific dates throughout the course (see schedule below). This is to stop students from doing all the modules at the last minute and expecting to have all their work graded before final grades are due. There will also be a deadline for the last modules (once again, to curb students from handing in everything at the last moment). Please note the module closing dates below (all Modules close at 11:59PM on their respective due date)... I will not, under any circumstances, open a module for students because they missed the closing date. This is something that all students are advised of since the beginning of the course. You will only be able to advance to the next module once you have completed all the requirements for the preceding module. You begin the course by clicking on the "modules" button on the main page. Each individual module, as well as the getting started module, is available from this page.

You must first achieve a perfect score of "10" on the Getting Started Quiz in the Getting Started Module before you will have access to Module 1. You have unlimited attempts at this quiz, allowing you the opportunity to earn the 10.

It is your responsibility to check on your grades. Automatically graded quizzes should be available immediately after you submit them. If you check your grades and your quiz has not been graded please email me and I will manually grade it.

GEP Quizzes

You will find access to GEP quizzes in your personal webcourses main menu. The GEP pre- and post-tests are used by the university and our department to determine the knowledge you acquired during the semester. They will NOT count against you. Please take them WITHOUT your book!

The GEP pretest will be open for you to take during the first 2 weeks of class. The posttest will be available the last 2 weeks of class. Again, the scores you earn on the GEP pretest and posttest are NOT included in your total points.

Mini-Quizzes: Each module ends with a timed quiz and you will only see one question at a time. Once a quiz is opened, it is your ONLY chance to complete the quiz – there is no second chance! Any quiz problems that are the result of you waiting until the last minute to take the quiz will result in a “0” for the quiz. Also, you will receive a “0” for any assignment that is not completed by the time the module is closed such as discussions, internet assignments, and exercises.
Grading Scheme

Final grades in this class are weighted (see below)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assignment Group</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mini-Quizzes and Realizeit Exam Reviews</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Written/Quiz-graded assignments</td>
<td>40%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How do I calculate my weighted grade? Well, webcourses does it for you. However, if you would like to understand how it works, here's an example. In this class we have three assignment groups (A, B, and C) weighted at 44%, 12%, and 44%, respectively. The total score equation for a course with three assignment groups would be (percentage A x weight A) + (percentage B x weight B) + (percentage C x weight C) = final course percentage. If a student scores 75% in Group A, 86% in Group B, and 94% in Group C, the final score would be calculated as (.75 x .40) + (.86 x .20) + (.94 x .40) = .848, or 85%.

The +/- system will be used in this course. These percentages correspond to the following letter grades

<thead>
<tr>

Under no exception will I make individual allowances for anyone in this course in terms of grading. Since you have the whole term to complete the course at your own pace, I will not allow anyone to make up missed assignments at the end of the course - do not wait until the last minute complete assignments. In addition, I will not curve anyone’s final grade nor will I provide extra credit for anyone that is unhappy with their final course grade. Please do not ask! (I do round up scores, anything .5 or higher. For example, a percentage of 89.5 would be rounded to a 90)

Personal Adaptive Learning Reviews

In this class, Exam Reviews are presented in a system called Realizeit. Exam Reviews are given immediately prior to exam deadlines and are a great way to practice and study for exams. The system will "Determine Your Knowledge" then highlight the areas in which you need more review and practice. For more information, please see the "Getting Started with Personalized Adaptive Learning" page in the Getting Started Module.

Reviewing Quiz/Assignment Questions:

I am happy to address any questions you have concerning a grade. But please know you have up to 1 week after the closing of a quiz to bring up these questions or discrepancies concerning your score. After 1 week, I will no longer address these concerns. This is to prevent students from waiting until they see their final grade to address any issues in an effort to get their score bumped up. Please be sure to review your grade as soon as you submit and be sure to bring up any questions to me immediately!

Important Dates and Information

Add class deadline Friday, August 30; Drop class deadline: Thursday, August 29
Withdrawal deadline for this course: Friday, November 1
Final course closing date: Monday, December 9

First Assignment and Your Financial Aid

As of Fall 2014, all faculty members are required to document students’ academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the Getting Started Quiz by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than August 30. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
Make-ups/Excuses:
There are NO make-ups in this course. As each set of modules closes approximately every two- three weeks, you are provided plenty of time to complete modules prior to the deadline. However, I do understand that there are circumstances that can interrupt your ability to finish modules on time. Some of these valid excuses include a death in the family, family emergency, or you are personally injured or ill. Documentation (doctor's note with dates, obituary) of these incidences MUST be provided within one week after the module closing in order for a make-up to be allowed.  A broken computer is NOT a valid excuse.

Additionally, a written email or note from a parent, friend, or employer does NOT count as a valid excuse.

If an error occurs while taking a quiz, or while attempting to upload a document, you MUST take a screen shot of your computer desktop which shows the error. IMPORTANT: Your screen shot must include proof of time/date. Without the date and time there is no way to prove that your issue occurred prior to the deadline. Screen shot directions: http://www.take-a-screenshot.org/

Discussion Board Appropriateness:
The discussion board is to be used by students to discuss topics concerning our class. Feel free to discuss topics covered in the class, articles you may have found online. As stated in the golden rule, please do not share or discuss specific quiz/exam answers or answers to assignments. Additionally, please do not use the discussion board to launch personal attacks against myself or fellow students. If there is an issue, please do not hesitate to contact me privately. I am happy to help in any way I can.

Student Non-solicitation
Students have the right to privacy and non-solicitation in an online environment. Thus, students are NOT permitted to send out mass emails to the entire class via inbox or knights.ucf.edu without explicit permission from the professor. If a student wants to bring up a subject to the class, the student must use the Discussions board and select the appropriate discussion thread for conversing. I have provided an area under Discussions for students to message and contact each other. I will not tolerate students harassing, spamming, or inciting each other when discussions can be handled and monitored in one location via the Discussions tab. If you are being spammed or bullied by a fellow student, please report to me and I will handle the issue. The Office of Student Conduct may be used if a solution cannot be found.

This applies to mass emails, you are obviously more than welcome to email individual friends in the class

Email Appropriateness:
Please address emails in a formal matter. Emails are the only correspondence I have with you, therefore, they are the only impression I get of your character. Sometimes emails that are blunt can come off as rude.

Online Technology

By signing up for an online class, students assume the responsibility for having a functioning computer and programs necessary for viewing videos or accessing websites. A broken computer or non-functioning software is not a valid excuse for missing a deadline. Additionally, if a student waits until after 5pm on the due date to work on an assignment and experiences an issue, they are responsible for finding a solution (Unless there is a mass issue that effects every student in the class...if this is the case the professor will produce a solution).

Students are responsible for ensuring they are completing their work from a reliable internet source and device. If issues occur regarding internet or device, the student bears the burden of proving an issue occurred with the device or internet in order for make-up or retakes to be permitted. Without proof, no retakes will be permitted.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.
- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.
- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.
- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.
- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.
- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.
- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity.
For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see "Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices (http://wpacouncil.org/node/9) .

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf) UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade .

GROUP ME: If a student creates a group me for this class, they are required to make the link public (posted in the Discussions board) to make it accessible to the entire class. Please be aware that students are more likely to tell on each other for cheating or answer sharing, so use this wisely. I will not hesitate to turn you over to the Office of Student Conduct.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services(http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

If you are registered with SAS, please contact the professor immediately for information concerning extended quiz and assignment times

Please note that if you are permitted extended quiz/exam times, it is your responsibility to begin quizzes, quiz-graded assignments, and exams with enough time prior to the deadline to fulfill that extension. Having extended quiz times DOES NOT give you permission to run beyond the deadline time of 11:59pm.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, everyone needs to work together.
Students should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on "Student Self Service" located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue "Personal Information" heading on your Student Center screen, click on "UCF Alert," fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click "Apply" to save the changes, and then click "OK."
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video.

  You CAN Survive an Active Shooter
  (https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk)

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Copyright

This course contains copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, video lectures, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.
According to the Academic Misconduct section of the UCF Golden Rule section C. states: "Commercial use of academic material: Selling notes, handouts, etc., without authorization or using them for any commercial purpose without the express written permission of the University and the instructor is a violation of this rule." Students cannot use any class materials for commercial purposes without instructor consent. If you do, it could result in disciplinary expulsion. All punitive sanctions can come with educational sanctions to help enforce the rules of conduct. In other words, we will file a lawsuit.

Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

My expectations of you for taking Human Species

- I expect you to do your work and not copy the work from others.
- When you take an online quiz, I expect you to complete the quiz by yourself.
- I expect you to treat all communications with me and your fellow students professionally and respectfully. I expect you to write using conventional rules of grammar, spelling, and paragraph formation. Please refrain from slang.
- I expect you to progress in a timely manner through the course. You are permitted to work at your own pace, however if you leave everything to the last minute it will be impossible to complete the course.
- I expect you to check your e-mail and participate in discussions. Only by doing this can you fully participate in the course, and keep up-to-date on any announcements.

What You Can Expect From Me

You can expect from me everything I expect from you, and I will respond to your email as fast as is physically possible. In addition, your grades will be posted in a timely manner.

Final Comments

If you cannot accept the requirements for this course after reading this syllabus, you may want to rethink taking this course. Hope you enjoy the class!

*The professor reserves the right to change this syllabus at anytime. It is the students responsibility to review the syllabus for updates.

Course Description and Scope

This course will explore Indigenous, historical, and maritime archaeology, as a means of unraveling the full breadth of Australia's rich Indigenous and colonial history. Archaeology is the only discipline able to study the nearly 60,000 years of human settlement on this continent and is of crucial significance for understanding Australia's past. In Australia, archaeology takes three main forms: Indigenous Archaeology (the archaeology of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in Australia before and after European Settlement), Historical Archaeology (the archaeology of Australia after European Settlement) and Maritime Archaeology. As such, the class will be sub-divided and will use Cultural Heritage...
Management as a means of bridging these sub-disciplines. Topics covered in this course will include (but aren’t limited to) the peopling of Australia, Indigenous archaeology and contemporary culture, historical archaeology of Fossil Beach and Melbourne Gaol, Dutch and West Indian shipwrecks, and cultural heritage.

Course Catalog Description: Explore indigenous peoples, both past and present, through historical and maritime archaeology, as a means of unraveling the full breadth of Australia’s rich indigenous cultures.

Course Goals

The specific objectives for this course are to:

- Introduce students to archaeological practices in Australia.
- Provide an overview of the methods and theories that guide archaeological research in Australia.
- Explain migration out of Africa and the peopling of Australia and Oceania.
- Explain the significant impact that historical and maritime archaeology has had on the understanding of early European explorations of Australia.
- Explain the complicated relationship between Indigenous Australians and Europeans; both past and present
- Highlight the resilient and beautiful nature of Indigenous Australian cultural practices

Required Text

There is no required text for this class. You will be provided material through assigned article/chapter readings and video lectures (located in each module).

Required Tools

1. A functioning computer with access to internet and websites
2. Adobe reader (or another tool that makes pdf's accessible and able to be read)
3. Headphones (if working in a public space so that video lectures may be watched)

Course Requirements

This course begins on August 26th, 2019 and ends on December 9th, 2019. Your grade in this course will be based out of 515 total points. There will be quizzes at the end of each module and exams worth a total of 380 points, and assignments worth a total of 135 points. This course is a self paced course, so you may go at your own speed. However, modules are grouped together and due on specific dates throughout the course (see schedule below). This is to stop students from doing all the modules at the last minute and expecting to have all their work graded before final grades are due. There will also be a deadline for the last modules (once again, to curb students from handing in everything at the last moment). Please note the module closing dates below (all Modules close at 11:59PM on their respective due date)... I will not, under any circumstances, open a module for students because they missed the closing date. This is something that all students are advised of since the beginning of the course. You will only be able to advance to the next module once you have completed all the requirements for the preceding module. You begin the course by clicking on the “modules” button on the main page. Each individual module, as well as the getting started module, is available from this page.

Modules Quizzes

Getting Started Quiz: You must first achieve a perfect score of "10" on the Getting Started Quiz in the Getting Started Module before you will have access to Module 1. You will have multiple attempts at the quiz until you earn the 10. Keep in mind, this is the only quiz with multiple attempts in this class.

Modules Quizzes: Each module ends with a timed quiz and you will only see one question at a time. Once a quiz is opened, it is your ONLY chance to complete the quiz – there is no second chance! Any quiz problems that are the result of you waiting until the last minute to take the quiz will result in a “0” for the quiz. Also, you will receive a “0” for any assignment that is not completed by the time the module is closed such as discussions, internet assignments, and exercises.

It is your responsibility to check on your grades. Automatically graded quizzes should be available immediately after you submit them. If you check your grades and your quiz has not been graded please email me and I will manually grade it.

Video Lectures

Within each Module there is a link to a video lecture(s). When you click on the link the lecture will load and appear WITHIN webcourses. You need to have speakers or headphones to listen!! These video lectures provide a majority of the content for this class…so you must watch and take notes in order to pass the class. At the beginning of each Module there is a module outline that will describe the length and content of the lectures. Each video lecture ranges from 15 to 25 minutes in length, so plan accordingly. You have the ability to PAUSE, STOP, REWIND and FAST FORWARD. This provides you with the ability to come back to a lecture if needed.

My suggestion for the video lectures is to watch the video and take notes, then re-watch the lecture and write down any additional information I describe while lecturing. DON'T LOSE YOUR NOTES! THE LECTURES CLOSE WITH THE MODULE DEADLINES!! If a student loses their notes, it is their responsibility to find someone in the class to get a copy of the notes. I, under no circumstances, will reopen modules or send copies of notes that have been misplaced.

Grading Scheme

The +/- system will be used in this course. These percentages correspond to the following letter grades

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>93.5-100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>89.5-93%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>86.5-89%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Under no exception will I make individual allowances for anyone in this course in terms of grading. Since you have the whole term to complete the course at your own pace, I will not allow anyone to make up missed assignments at the end of the course - do not wait until the last minute complete assignments. In addition, I will not curve anyone’s final grade nor will I provide extra credit for anyone that is unhappy with their final course grade. Please do not ask! (I do round up scores, anything .5 or higher. For example, a percentage of 89.5 would be rounded to an A-)

Reviewing Quiz/Assignment Questions

I am happy to address any questions you have concerning a grade. But please know you have up to 1 week after the closing of a quiz to bring up these questions or discrepancies concerning your score. After 1 week, I will no longer address these concerns. This is to prevent students from waiting until they see their final grade to address any issues in an effort to get their score bumped up. Please be sure to review your grade as soon as you submit and be sure to bring up any questions to me immediately!

Important Dates and Information

Add class deadline Friday, August 30; Drop class deadline: Thursday, August 29
Withdrawal deadline for this course: Friday, November 1
Final course closing date: Friday, December 9

First Assignment and Your Financial Aid

As of Fall 2014, all faculty members are required to document students' academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the Getting Started Quiz and Assignment by the end of the first week of classes, or as soon as possible after adding the course, but no later than August 30. Failure to do so will result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.
Make-ups/Excuses
There are NO make-ups in this course. As each set of modules closes every three weeks, you are provided plenty of time to complete modules prior to the deadline. However, I do understand that there are circumstances that can interrupt your ability to finish modules on time. Some of these valid excuses include a death in the family, family emergency, or you are personally injured or ill. Documentation (doctor's note with dates, obituary) of these incidences MUST be provided in order for a make-up to be allowed.  A broken computer is NOT a valid excuse.

Additionally, a written email or note from a parent, friend, or employer does NOT count as a valid excuse.

If an error occurs while taking a quiz, or while attempting to upload a document, you MUST take a screen shot of your computer desktop which shows the error. IMPORTANT: Your screen shot must include proof of time/date. Without the date and time there is no way to prove that your issue occurred prior to the deadline. Screen shot directions: http://www.take-a-screenshot.org/

Discussion Board Appropriateness
The discussion board is to be used by students to discuss topics concerning our class. Feel free to discuss topics covered in the class, articles you may have found online. As stated in the golden rule, please do not share or discuss specific quiz/exam answers or answers to assignments. Additionally, please do not use the discussion board to launch personal attacks against myself or fellow students. If there is an issue, please do not hesitate to contact me privately. I am happy to help in any way I can.

Student Non-Solicitation
Students have the right to privacy and non-solicitation in an online environment. Thus, students are NOT permitted to send out mass emails to the entire class via inbox or knights.ucf.edu without explicit permission from the professor. If a student wants to bring up a subject to the class, the student must use the Discussions and select the appropriate discussion thread for conversing. I have provided an area under Discussions for students to message and contact each other. I will not tolerate students harassing, spamming, or inciting each other when discussions can be handled and monitored in one location via the Discussions tab. If you are being spammed or bullied by a fellow student, please report to me and I will handle the issue. The Office of Student Conduct may be used if a solution cannot be found.

This applies to mass emails, you are obviously more than welcome to email individual friends in the class

Email Appropriateness
Please address emails in a formal matter. Emails are the only correspondence I have with you, therefore, they are the only impression I get of your character. Sometimes emails that are blunt can come off as rude.

Online Technology

By signing up for an online class, students assume the responsibility for having a functioning computer and programs necessary for viewing videos or accessing websites. A broken computer or non-functioning software is not a valid excuse for missing a deadline. Additionally, if a student waits until after 5pm on the due date to work on an assignment and experiences an issue, they are responsible for finding a solution (Unless there is a mass issue that effects every student in the class...if this is the case the professor will produce a solution).

Students are responsible for ensuring they are completing their work from a reliable internet source and device. If issues occur regarding internet or device, the student bears the burden of proving an issue occurred with the device or internet in order for make-up or retakes to be permitted. Without proof, no retakes will be permitted.

Academic Integrity

Students should familiarize themselves with UCF’s Rules of Conduct. According to Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," students are prohibited from engaging in:

- Unauthorized assistance: Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise unless specifically authorized by the instructor of record. The unauthorized possession of examination or course-related material also constitutes cheating.

- Communication to another through written, visual, electronic, or oral means: The presentation of material which has not been studied or learned, but rather was obtained through someone else’s efforts and used as part of an examination, course assignment, or project.

- Commercial Use of Academic Material: Selling of course material to another person, student, and/or uploading course material to a third-party vendor without authorization or without the express written permission of the university and the instructor. Course materials include but are not limited to class notes, Instructor’s PowerPoints, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, handouts, etc.

- Falsifying or misrepresenting the student’s own academic work.

- Plagiarism: Using or appropriating another’s work without any indication of the source, thereby attempting to convey the impression that such work is the student’s own.

- Multiple Submissions: Submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without the express written permission of the instructor.

- Helping another violate academic behavior standards.

For more information about Academic Integrity, students may consult The Center for Academic Integrity.
For more information about plagiarism and misuse of sources, see “Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism: The WPA Statement on Best Practices (http://wpacouncil.org/node/9)”.

Responses to Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism, or Cheating

Students should also familiarize themselves with the procedures for academic misconduct in UCF’s student handbook, The Golden Rule. (http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/docs/goldenrule.pdf) UCF faculty members have a responsibility for students’ education and the value of a UCF degree, and so seek to prevent unethical behavior and when necessary respond to academic misconduct. Penalties can include a failing grade in an assignment or in the course, suspension or expulsion from the university, and/or a "Z Designation" on a student’s official transcript indicating academic dishonesty, where the final grade for this course will be preceded by the letter Z. For more information about the Z Designation, see http://goldenrule.sdes.ucf.edu/zgrade.

GROUP ME: If a student creates a group me for this class, they are required to make the link public (posted in the Discussions board) to make it accessible to the entire class. Please be aware that students are more likely to tell on each other for cheating or answer sharing, so use this wisely. I will not hesitate to turn you over to the Office of Student Conduct.

Course Accessibility Statement

The University of Central Florida is committed to providing access and inclusion for all persons with disabilities. Students with disabilities who need disability-related access in this course should contact the professor as soon as possible. Students should also connect with Student Accessibility Services (http://sas.sdes.ucf.edu/) (Ferrell Commons 185, sas@ucf.edu (mailto:sas@ucf.edu), phone (407) 823-2371). Through Student Accessibility Services, a Course Accessibility Letter may be created and sent to professors, which informs faculty of potential access and accommodations that might be reasonable. Determining reasonable access and accommodations requires consideration of the course design, course learning objectives and the individual academic and course barriers experienced by the student.

If you are registered with SAS, please contact the professor immediately for information concerning extended quiz and assignment times

Please note that if you are permitted extended quiz/exam times, it is your responsibility to begin quizzes, quiz-graded assignments, and exams with enough time prior to the deadline to fulfill that extension. Having extended quiz times DOES NOT give you permission to run beyond the deadline time of 11:59pm.

Campus Safety Statement

Emergencies on campus are rare, but if one should arise in our class, everyone needs to work together.
Students should be aware of the surroundings and familiar with some basic safety and security concepts.

- In case of an emergency, dial 911 for assistance.
- Every UCF classroom contains an emergency procedure guide posted on a wall near the door. Please make a note of the guide’s physical location and consider reviewing the online version at http://emergency.ucf.edu/emergency_guide.html.
- Students should know the evacuation routes from each of their classrooms and have a plan for finding safety in case of an emergency.
- If there is a medical emergency during class, we may need to access a first aid kit or AED (Automated External Defibrillator). To learn where those items are located in this building, see http://www.ehs.ucf.edu/workplacesafety.html (click on link from menu on left).
- To stay informed about emergency situations, sign up to receive UCF text alerts by going to my.ucf.edu and logging in. Click on "Student Self Service" located on the left side of the screen in the tool bar, scroll down to the blue "Personal Information" heading on your Student Center screen, click on "UCF Alert," fill out the information, including your e-mail address, cell phone number, and cell phone provider, click "Apply" to save the changes, and then click "OK."
- Students with special needs related to emergency situations should speak with their instructors outside of class.
- To learn about how to manage an active-shooter situation on campus or elsewhere, consider viewing this video.

  You CAN Survive an Active Shooter  (https://youtu.be/NIKYajEx4pk)

Deployed Active Duty Military Students

If you are a deployed active duty military student and feel that you may need a special accommodation due to that unique status, please contact your instructor to discuss your circumstances.

Copyright

This course contains copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, video lectures, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

According to the Academic Misconduct section of the UCF Golden Rule section C. states: "Commercial use of academic material: Selling notes, handouts, etc., without authorization or using them for any commercial purpose without the express written permission of the University and the instructor is a violation of this rule." Students cannot use any class materials for commercial purposes without instructor consent. If you do, it could result in disciplinary expulsion. All punitive sanctions can come with educational sanctions to help enforce the rules of conduct. In other words, we will file a lawsuit.
Third-Party Software and FERPA

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. Some written assignments posted publicly may require personal reflection/comments, but the assignments will not require you to disclose any personally identity-sensitive information. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

My expectations of you for taking Australian Archaeology

- I expect you to do your work and not copy the work from others.
- When you take an online quiz, I expect you to complete the quiz by yourself.
- I expect you to treat all communications with me and your fellow students professionally and respectfully. I expect you to write using conventional rules of grammar, spelling, and paragraph formation. Please refrain from slang.
- I expect you to progress in a timely manner through the course. You are permitted to work at your own pace, however if you leave everything to the last minute it will be impossible to complete the course.
- I expect you to check your e-mail and participate in discussions. Only by doing this can you fully participate in the course, and keep up-to-date on any announcements.

What You Can Expect From Me

You can expect from me everything I expect from you, and I will respond to your email as fast as is physically possible. In addition, your grades will be posted in a timely manner.

Final Comments

If you cannot accept the requirements for this course after reading this syllabus, you may want to rethink taking this course. Hope you enjoy the class!

The professor reserves the right to change this syllabus at anytime. It is the students responsibility to review the syllabus for updates.
