

George A. Long, M.A.
Department of Anthropology
University of Central Florida
Orlando, FL 32816

Instructor in Anthropology

. Education:

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
M.A. Degree (1967) Anthropology
B.A. Degree (1963) Anthropology

Teaching Experience:

University of Central Florida 1992 - present

Adjunct, Visiting Instructor, and Instructor.

Courses taught listed below:

General Anthropology
Human Species
Cultural Anthropology
Peoples of the World
Peoples Cultures Latin America
Indians of the Southeast
Indians of the High Plains
Ethnology of North American Indian
Florida Archaeology
Archaeology and the Rise of Human Culture
Archaeology of Complex Societies
North American Archaeology
Old World Prehistory

Other Adjunct Teaching Experience

Part-time while usually working in industry ranging from aerospace to commercial construction. Taught at schools listed below.

Brevard Community College, Cocoa, FL
Rollins College Brevard Branch, Patrick Air Force Base, FL
University of West Florida, Pensacola, FL
Valencia Community College, Orlando, FL
(VCC East, West, and Osceola Branches)
Florida Institute of Technology, Melbourne, FL
Seminole Community College, Sanford, FL
Lake-Sumter Community College, Leesburg, FL
University of Central Florida, Orlando, FL (see above)

Archaeological Experience:

Participated in archaeological excavations, surveys, and artifact studies

Florida (field school, surveys, minor excavations)

Republic of Panama (colonial ceramics)

South Dakota (prehistoric earth lodges)

New Brunswick, Canada (historic trading post)

Quebec, Canada (historic fort)

Parks Canada Lab, Ottawa (National Historic Sites Service artifact studies, colonial ceramics)

Reports:

Long, George A

1966 Indian and Historic Sites, Kennedy Space Center,
NASA (survey on file State of Florida, and NASA)

1973a Progress Report on Faience Research, Research Bulletin, No.
12, National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa

1973b Tin-glazed Earthenware from the Machualt, Research Bulletin,
No. 13, National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa (shipwreck site)

1976 Archaeological Study for the Pensacola Shoreline Drive, Bureau of Historic Sites & Properties, Tallahassee, *Misc. Project Report
Series*, No. 36 (survey)

Long, George A. and Gerard Gusset

1972 Fort Chambly Excavations, National Historic Sites Service, Ottawa,
Manuscript Report Series, No. 74