

Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

How & When to meet with a UCF Pre-Law/Pre-Health Advisor?

Advising for UCF students by Appointment and Walk-In. For appointments, call the office at 407-823-3033. Walk-Ins for quick questions are limited to 15 minutes each; first-come, first-served; and each week on: Mondays 1:30-3:30, Tuesdays 3:30-4:30, Wednesdays 9:30-11:00 & 12:00-1:30, and Thursdays 9:30-11:30 & 3:00-4:00.

Majors: We advise Pre-Law and Pre-Health students in All Majors.

Services for Pre-Law Students:

- Advising – by appointment and walk-in (Walk-In times listed above)
- LSAT Practice Tests – must first meet with a PHPL advisor to be eligible to take a practice test
- Personal Statement Reviews – see PHPL website for submission and review process
- Host Law School Visits on the UCF Campus – one-on-one meetings and presentations
- Outreach Presentations and Events – UCF Campus and DirectConnect & Regional Campuses
- Workshops for Pre-Law Students – every Fall and Spring
- UCF-FSU Law 3+3 Program – if interested, schedule an advising appt. with Erin or Chauntrice

Topics discussed during Pre-Law advising can include:

- Forming an individualized plan of progression towards the student's law school goal
- Options for extracurricular activities & law-related involvement in the UCF or Orlando area
- Evidence of GPA and LSAT averages of successful applicants to law schools
- Evidence of bar passage and employment of successful graduates of law schools
- LSAT prep options & timing
- Basic course planning (though students should get advised by their college/major advisor too)
- Strategies for balancing strong academics and extracurricular activities
- Discussion of the different practice areas within law
- Timelines, such as when to:
 - Engage in different types of extracurricular activities
 - Take the LSAT
 - Ask for letters of evaluation (and who to ask)
 - Apply to law schools
