

Welcome to our first meeting of the Fall semester!

Psi Chi: The International Honor Society in Psychology

Important Announcement!

We cannot accept any new membership applications at this time.

- There has been a delay in receiving updated GPA cutoffs from Psych Advising
- Without these, as per official Psi Chi requirements, we are unable to determine if the new members fall within the Top 35% of their class standing
- We should be receiving these 2018-2019 GPA cutoffs in the next week or two
- We will post on ALL of our social media channels as soon as we receive this info
- Once you see that you meet this year's GPA requirements, come visit us at our office hours or at our next meeting to officially become a member of Psi Chi

And now, it's time for an...

ICEBREAKER

Meet the officers and stop by our office hours!

Why Psi Chi?

Mission Statement:

Recognizing and promoting excellence in the science and application of psychology.

Why Psi Chi?

Networking: Get to know psychology majors, professors, and psychology people in the community (maybe for a future job, internship or mentorship).

Resume: It looks really good and shows that you were an involved member of your school and community (not just a high achieving smarty pants).

Community: Get involved with the community while meeting people and having fun.

Psi Chi provides over $300,550 annually in awards and grants to students... all you have to do is APPLY

And finally, once you're a member, you're a member for life!

So how do I join?
