

Psi Chi provides over 300,550 annually in awards and grants for students, so Psi Chi is a valuable resource for students

These opportunities are amazing for students who want to earn funding later on in graduate school, and Psi Chi boasts membership for life!

How do you join Psi Chi? You visit psichi.org to apply to the international organization, but you must provide proof to us and apply for our UCF chapter to be a member of psi chi here. You must also pay $75 in dues!

You must visit us at office hours or our next meeting with all THREE of these things to become a member:

1. A printed online application
2. Your UCF degree audit
3. Cash or check for $75 in dues

*March 30th is the spring 2020 Application deadline. The deadline is on the day of the last office hours, Friday, so keep that in mind! You can't leave them in the office or email them, as that is a FERPA violation! You must hand them to us in person or we cannot accept your applications.

What are the dues going towards? Well, Psi Chi is for life, and your dues go to our induction ceremony, conference opportunities, and scholarship opportunities!

Make sure you meet our requirements! You must be in the top 35% of your class, so 3.529 GPA for sophomores, 3.365 for juniors, and 3.368 for seniors. You must also have completed at least 3 semesters comprising 36 credit hours and at least 12 credit hours from UCF. Finally, you must have 9 hours completed in psychology courses and a 3.0 psychology GPA.
