

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

2024-2025 Academic Year

Psychology Advising Center

Peer Advisor Internship

The Psychology Peer Advisors are advanced undergraduate psychology majors who assist other psychology majors/minors to understand and complete their psychology degree requirements. The Peer Advisors inform students of academic policies and procedures, assist in conducting orientation for incoming freshman and transfer students, and provide advisement on other psychology-related matters such as career options and graduate school preparation.

Peer Advisors earn 3 upper level psychology credit hours in the first semester of the unpaid internship by completing S/U graded course: PSY 3022 Academic Counseling. This is a three semester commitment from beginning of Fall until end of Summer and advisors are chosen based on GPA, other extracurricular activities, and interest in helping others. Applicants must have at least a 3.0 overall and UCF GPA to apply. Must be at least a 2nd semester Sophomore with completion of several UCF Psychology courses.

Emailed Applications are due after the second week of Summer A/C, interviews may be conducted shortly after. Mandatory attendance for Training prior to Fall will be required. Availability for training during summer is required.

Attached is the application to the Psychology Peer Advising Program. For more information, contact the Advising Center. If you have not done so already, it is highly recommended you sit with a current PEER Advisor and have your degree audit reviewed to see what they do and ask them about the Peer Advising Internship personally.

Email: psychadvising@ucf.edu

To apply you need to email 1) Application and answers and 2) updated Resume

(HINT*Recommended to have your resume critiqued by Career Services.)

Peer Advisors play a very vital and important role in the UCF Undergraduate Psychology Department and the University of Central Florida on the main campus in Orlando, FL.
