

Justin Stevens

10600 Bloomfield Dr. Apt 1327
Orlando, FL 32825
(561)373-9229
justinpstevens@knights.ucf.edu

Career Objective

To obtain a masters degree in the field of Industrial & Organizational Psychology, applying psychology to improve work life and maximize productivity in businesses.

Education

Masters of Science in Industrial/Organizational Psychology

University of Central Florida, Orlando, FL
Expected to earn degree in 2015

Bachelor of Science in Psychology, minor: German

Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL
Overall GPA: 3.88 – Magna Cum Laude
Psychology GPA: 4.0

Experience

Vice President of Membership – ISPI CFC, Orlando, FL 11/13 to present

- International Society for Performance Improvement – Central Florida Chapter.
Member of the executive committee and responsible for all duties relating to chapter membership.

Volunteer Counselor – 2-1-1 Big Bend, Tallahassee, FL 5/11 to 8/12

- Trained to give short term crisis counseling, information and referrals on 4 hotlines including: Suicide Prevention Hotline, Helpline 2-1-1, Parent Helpline, and Oil spill Distress Helpline

Experimenter – Kaschak lab, FSU, Tallahassee, FL 8/11 to 4/12

- Trained to use an infrared eye tracker to perform experiments concerning language processing, reading behaviors and factors that affect attention.

Experimenter – Cogle lab, FSU, Tallahassee, FL 1/11 to 8/11

- Trained to perform experiments concerning OCD & Courage; specifically compulsions to clean and check things. Trained to also perform an experiment concerning anger and factors which mitigate or exacerbate it. I entered data into spreadsheets, rated videos for other experiments and maintained the laboratory.

Honors, Activity

- Society for Industrial & Organizational Psychology (SIOP) member
- Association for Psychological Science (APS) member
- International Society for Performance Improvement (ISPI) executive committee member

Skills

- Proficiency in SPSS, Microsoft Word, Excel, Powerpoint

