Research Experience

Computational Psychology Lab, University of Central Florida

October 2015 – August 2016

Research Assistant

My main task was performing literature searches on the correlation of leadership emergence/effectiveness and NEO-PIR sub facets. I collaborated with the advising graduate student, my lab advisor and other undergraduate RA's to collect relevant and useful literature for the research project.

Institute for Social and Behavioral Studies, University of Central Florida

June 2015 – July 2016

Research Assistant

I surveyed residents in the state of Florida regarding their thoughts on local and municipal issues. The surveys were provided by local businesses and governmental entities. My team collected and input the data onto Excel software.

Teaching Experience

Psychology Department, University of Central Florida

Fall 2017

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant – Research Methods in Psychology (PSY3213)

I coordinated review sessions throughout the semester for students in conjunction with other TA's and clarified concepts to students in the class through e-mail and in-person correspondence. I also aided professor in collecting and organizing all examination materials.
