Congressman Luis Gutierrez will discuss his experiences on the relationship between Washington and Puerto Rico. This includes his views on the federal response to Hurricane Maria, the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), and the summer 2019 political protests in Puerto Rico. He will also discuss the impact of the growing Puerto Rican population in the continental United States and its influence on Puerto Rico-Washington relations.