C. Research Publication Summary

Books: Since 2020, I have published 4 books:

- Two monographs: 1) The Death of Affirmative Action and 2) Original Sin?
- One Edited volume: Protecting Whiteness
- Introduction to Sociology textbook: Sociology

The two monographs and the edited book are published with a university press, the gold standard of publishing in American sociology due to prestige and rigor of peer review. Furthermore, my most recent monograph, Original Sin?, is published in the prestigious Race and Ethnicity book series with the University of Georgia Press, which is edited by top scholars in my area.

Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles and Chapters: I have published 50 peer-reviewed manuscripts, including 45 articles and 5 chapters; resulting in more than 2 manuscripts published, on average, a year over my career. My work can be found in top journals including:

- #1 journal in ALL of sociology (Clavariate, 2024): Annual Review of Sociology
- #3 journal in Ethnic Studies (Clavariate, 2024): Two articles in Sociology of Race and Ethnicity (#1 at the time of publication)

F. Contracts & Grants

Record on Grants: My record on grants exceeds the department's expectations for faculty in my department at all levels. My research has been funded by Federal agencies (National Institute of Health, NIH), by state agencies (City of Orlando) and by internal programs (Department of Sociology at UCF). Furthermore, I currently have a grant under review with NIH estimating just over $3.7 million. Both NIH projects are in conjunction with the Population of Health Sciences department in the Medical School at UCF.

V. PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

A. Service Work Summary

My Record with Service: As can be seen from my record below, my record transcends my “personal aspirations” and seeks to improve the experiences of junior faculty and students. I have maintained leadership positions at all levels: discipline, university, and the department. In the discipline I have served as co-editor of 2 journals: Sociological Inquiry and Journal of Professional and Public Sociology. I was a member of a prestigious editorial board (Sociology of Race and Ethnicity) and the Alpha Kappa Delta (AKD) council. At the college and university levels, I have served Faculty Senate and the University Personnel Committee and am currently serving on the College promotion committee. At the department level, I served as the Chair of the Personnel Committee and on two subcommittees that revised our policies and procedure and annual evaluation documents (twice).

VI. TEACHING

A. Teaching Summary

My Record with Teaching – Based on my level of mentorship of students in and outside of the university and my contributions to the sociology curriculum, I have contributed greatly to the mission of the university, college, and department. As can be seen below. I have maintained high mean student evaluation scores despite teaching 3 of the 4 required courses as well as 4 graduate race and racism courses that contribute to the inequalities graduate track. I have also established myself as a mentor to many students both undergraduate and graduate over the years.
