

SAS Data Analytics and Reporting Manager

Envision your career with one of the world's largest hospitality companies. With over 7,000 hotels, 145 Vacation Ownership Resorts, 200,000 rental units and more than 25,000 associates across six continents you'll discover the rewards of working in an energetic environment with caring colleagues. Rewards that include a career path with diverse opportunities, learning and mentorship. Wyndham Worldwide (NYSE: WYN) has been an industry leader in hospitality with almost $4 billion in revenues. Wyndham continues to expand and grow through industry leading efforts like Women on Their Way and Wyndham Green. While you may know our brands RCI, WorldMark by Wyndham, Ramada, Days Inn and Travelodge; there are many more aspects and companies to this leader in hospitality.

As one of FORTUNE Magazine's Most Admired Companies, Wyndham Worldwide is one family, one team of professionals who actively strive to provide our customers and each other with our signature Count On Me! Service promise. A promise to be responsive to needs, to be respectful in every way and deliver a great experience. It's more than a promise, at Wyndham it's been recognized as a commitment, visible in our awards including Newsweek's 100 Greenest Companies, DiversityInc's 25 Noteworthy Companies and Ethisphere Institute Lists of the World's Most Ethical Companies amongst others. Come and join our Wyndham Family and discover the rewards for your career.

Wyndham Vacation Ownership is searching for a SAS Data Analytics and Reporting Manager in Orlando, FL. The manager will partner with the Director of Operations Planning & Analysis using their expert knowledge of SAS to drive initiatives that increase business performance across supported business units. Responsibilities will include working directly with senior operational leaders to efficiently drive new owner transactions and sales and marketing efficiencies though leveraging their SAS proficiency with their ability to understand and solve business problems. They will partner with leaders to develop new strategies focused towards creating and administering long range plans with stakeholders for business sustainability and profitability. They will act as an advisor to the Director and supported leaders on business issues that need attention and provide recommendations and solutions. They will oversee all processes and find efficiencies where opportunities exist, implement changes when necessary. This position will lead and influence analysts across different levels supporting business units. This position will be responsible for acquiring and developing the appropriate SAS talent for the team, enhance each team members' skill set while addressing developmental opportunities and assign the appropriate SAS resources to the right tasks in order to achieve desired results. This position will use SAS to efficiently forecast the financial results and condition of the business identify and assesses risks and opportunities, and to help drive the success of the business by providing information and analysis derived to help guide management and operational decision-making. They will also create and update budget and forecast deliverables, as well as projects work dealing with financial and business assessments of potential strategic initiatives, process improvements, and other ad hoc projects.

- Acquires leads and develops team by being a mentor to direct reports, enhancing potential skills and addressing development opportunities. Provides timely and behaviorally specific feedback, aligns and mobilizes the organization with a set of common goals while maintaining an encouraging demeanor at moments of stress in a way that will positively influence others' attitudes.

- Work directly with the Voyager and SAS IT team to implement SAS so that it achieves and maintains the expected Voyager benefits while also ensuring the Planning & Analysis team and supported business partners are positioned to capitalize on SAS technology.
- Establish clear objectives for the team and directs team's resources to ensure alignment to the organizational strategies and increasing customer profitability
- Using SAS modeling software, create, document, and refine statistically-based predictive models for a range of internal customers. Collect, interpret and report key financial data to assess the company's performance. Participate in the investigation and description of financial statement variances and anomalies for written and verbal presentations
- Partner with operating departments to understand their needs and direct our SAS team on how SAS can best be implemented and used to increase their business performance.

Qualifications

- Bachelors degree in Finance or Accounting
- 3+ years experience in management position of highly trained analysts, preferably in the Timeshare industry.
- Proven experience overseeing financial planning and analysis across multiple lines of business and locations.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Able to work in a fast-paced environment.
- Must be able to manage multiple priorities in an efficient/timely manner.
- Experience in data manipulation and reporting using Oracle SQL querying tools such as Oracle SQL*Plus, SQL Navigator, Toad, Business Objects Designer and Reporter. Experience with large Oracle (10g preferred) relational databases.
- Experience with SAS Data Miner / Forecast / Statistical modeling software (3+ years).
- PL/SQL programming for complex stored procedures, SQL*Loader, packages and triggers.
- Experience with database software applications and data mining tools (3+ years).
- Strong knowledge of SQL*PLUS and SQL Navigator.
- Expertise with Excel

- Experience with Hyperion &/or Oracle preferred

Benefits

A career at Wyndham offers you great benefit opportunities with a competitive package of salary and bonus, benefits and recognition. In addition to great employee discounts on such travel related areas as hotel & lodging, car rentals & other goods & services, you will receive:

- Medical/dental and vision care plans
- A 401(k) program that matches dollar for dollar up to 6% of salary (to government max)
- Programs that include Flexible Spending Accounts, short & long term disability, life insurance & educational assistance amongst others

Along the way, you will have an opportunity to contribute to improving the world around us through our volunteer efforts and global sustainability program, Wyndham Green.

Come and be part of One Family, One Team, One Company . . . Wyndham